THE EXPLOSION.

Interesting Incidents.

From the Evansville Journal.

Jim Matheny, the pilot of the Cumber-and, on duty at the time of her explosion, was blown some distance up into the air and aft, falling into the river nearly in her wake. The boat was swinging to the lar-

he raised his hands above his head and of the roof of the boat or texas, and mmediately saw Bruce Hunter come up ose to him. He assisted him upon the rail raft and then discovered a negro,

hom he also hauled out of the water.

The portion of the wreck upon which they were floating was partly borne up by the yawl, the stern of which had been blown out. By keeping the raft upon the yawl, they were borne up until a skiff reached them from shore. It is believed that only the larboard boiler exploded, and that the

ne of the deckhands, and is supposed to

A passenger on board seemed to be a preparation to go ashore.

The first two were buried in the ruins

caped comparatively uninjured. Surely

"God moves in a mysterious way, His wonders to perform."

Mr. Platt asked' Mr. Budd to walk up stairs to his office and talk the matter over. When they had entered the office, Mr.

Platt asked Mr. Budd what he had against

Mr. Budd answered: "You insulted me

ir, in telling me to 'shut my mouth' while

Mr. Platt said he would do so again un

Mr. Budd responded that if he did he would beat him for it.

After some further conversation. Mr l'latt proposed to settle the difficulty at once by a fight in his office, saying to Mr. Budd, "I have no arms, sir, and presume you have none." Mr. Rudd promptly acceded to the proposal, informing Mr. Platt atter advanced upon him. Platt seized a chair and raised it to strike Mr. Budd. The latter seized the chair, threw it aside and planted a blow with his clenched fist

over one of Platt's eyes, leaving the mark thereof visible. The chair was cast asid being the larger and stronger, throwing Mr. Budd to the floor. Mr. Budd, how-ever, held Mr. Platt's head in a very close vantage in this fact. Platt probably either out one or more times, appealingly "Don't bite me! don't bite me! As Mr

Budd had no intention of tasting his plood, he did not "bite" Mr. Platt. In a few moments Mr. Budd turned his antagonist, and held him prostrate upon the floor. Then Mr. Platt loosed his hold, threw out his arms, and cried for "water!

And water was kindly furnished him. When in the midst of a hot persona conflict the party having the disadvantage can stop to take water, the other, we pre sume, can magnanimously afford to grat fy him. So when Mr. Platt threw up hi arms and appealed for "water," Mr. Bude released him, arose, took the water that was brought and handed it to the fallen Congressman. Afterthis Mr. Budd turned to leave the office, when Mr. Platt on his

Budd came back and waited Mr. Platt's pleasure—promenading the office floor, while was washing the blood from his face.

Mr. Platt settling the matter by saying he would have Mr. Budd before the Mayor for office. The parties, after exchanging a few words, parted, expressing mutual sat-

Another Victim.

The unfortunate Princess Charlotte is

Senor Salazar, ex-Minister of not the only victim of Bonaparte's ill-fated

Maximilian, is her fellow-sufferer, and is said to have been for some time past an inmate of the lunatic asylum of Washing-

in the utmost destitution in the neighbor ing city of Georgetown. Mr. Salazar enjoyed the reputation of a statesman and a nancier of remarkable scientific attain cated by the Mexican government, and he terial and moral anxiety.

His fortune having been confis

ton city, while his disconsolate wife lives ambition.

ments.

further encounter ensued, however

"unprovoked assault" upon him in his feet and partially revived, called him saying, "We'll have another round."

and the two combatants closed.

the Mayor's Court this morning.

ler like circumstances.

and lost.

DAILY WEATHER BULLETIN. By Western Union Telegraph Lines for Aug. 18. 9 A. M.

20,020,00
CITIES.	TH'R.	WIND.	WEATHER
Louisville Nashville Memphis	81 80 82	N E E S	Clear. Hazy, Clear.
Cincinnati	75		Cloudy.
Chicago St. Louis	71	S W	Clear. Cloudy. Clear.
Pittsburg Plaister Cove Boston	73 64 63	S N E	Clear. Clear. Cloudy.
New York Buffalo	70 73	NE	Cloudy.
Charleston Augusta	75 85 85	S E S E None	Clear. Clear. Clear.
Ft. Monroe Philadelphia Montgomery	73 73 80	N E S E	Cloudy. Cloudy.
Jackson	78 85	Z W	Clear.
Washington. Natchez Houston	84 85 88	E N E N E	Cloudy.
N. Orleaps	82	SE	Clear.

THE CITY. NOTICE.

Mr. N. Deemer and Mr. Sale have charge of the delivery of the Evening Express, in the central portion of the city, and will collect all bills for subscriptions from the first of the present mouth.

An Old Citizen of Indiana Gone. On the 14th instant, at his residence in Clark county, near New Albany, departed this life Mr. Francis Wells, at the ripe age of 91 years, having been born in Delaware but emigrating to the West and settling in Clark county in 1-06-63 years ago. An Imposter. The young woman who attempted suie in Detroit, a few days ago, and represented herself as a Jewess from Louisville, turns out to be a woman of the town, and was for some time previous to her suicidal attempt, an inmate of a notorious bagnio. She followed the life of a wanton in Louisville and Cincinnati before going to Detroit, and it is supposed, as she persists in threatening suicide, that she will be committed to the house of correction for a long term.

Masonic.

At a regular communication of Mt. Meriah Lodge No. 106, A. Y. M., held at their hall in Masonic Temple, Monday evening, August 16, after the usual lodge usiness was through with. Past Master S Hillman was made the recipient, from Mr. E Klauber, of a richly framed and finely printed photograph of the former, 11 by 10 inches in size. The picture, which bears the in-cription. "S. Hillman, P. M. Mt. Moriah Lodge No. 106. phetographed Ly C. Klauber," was received and presented y Past Grand Master Hiram Bassett in clauent terms, and appropriately re-St .nded to by Past Master Hillman.

The Chapmans.

The talented and charming vocalists Misses Blanche and Elia Chapman, wi appear at Weisiger Hall on Thur-day and riday evenings and on Saturday afte nonn of the present week, under the pr fessional engagement of that exceller gentleman and manager Jno. T. Ford, the Baltimore and Washington theaters They are now upon a Southern tonr, an the press of the cities where they have been speak of their concerts in the highest Alert ........... 3 0 1 0 2 3 4 1-14 terms, as exhibiting a fair degree of musical culture. We bespeak for them a hearty welcome from the amusement-lov ing public of our city.

Trausfer Wagon vs. R. R. Train. Yesterday, in New Albany, the driver of

e of the Louisville Transfer Co.'s baggage wagons drove right into the train on the Jeffersonville and New Albany Railroad as the train was crossing Bank street The train did not seem to be hurt much but the results of the collision to the other party were somewhat different. One of the horses had the hoof cut from his left kind foot, and the other horse was considerably damaged about the feet and legwhile the wagon was wrecked. The er, we learn, escaped without injury. Le horse which lost his loof will proba bly have to be killed.

An Excitable Female.

Mrs. Julia Eckman appeared before ustice Clement this morning, and, being very fearful her life was in danger, swore out a couple of peace warrants-one of them against Philip Daubert and the other against Mrs. Philip Daubert. The parties all live on the river road. a short distance above the eut-off. It appears that Mrs. Daubert is a very excitable, quarrelsome woman, and has of late been exercising her neighbors by threatening to shoot one or more of them, among others, Mrs Eckman The Dauberts waived examination and gave bond in $200 to keep the peace all around for at least the next six months

Green-eyed Monster.

Whether or not the green-eyed monster has any peculiar affinity for the African race of people, has never been decided, so far as has come to the ears of the public but it would appear that members of that people are very often seriously affected by is attacks. This morning he induced Ellen Castleman to apply before Justice Matlack for a peace warrant against Aaron Smith and his wife Hannah, sometimes known as Hannah Leacher. The parties are all colored; live on Twelfth street, and engaged in a quarrel which threatened unpleasant circumstances. It half a mile from the Springs. Eight shots seems that Aaron and Hannah are married, while Ellen also lays claim to be holding the same position towards Aaron r three months.

SOLDIERS IN A ROW.

A Court-Martial. A court-martial of United States cers, Col. Woodward, president, and Capt Hamilton, judge advocate, will commence its sittings to-morrow in the case of Corporal Fink, charged with "disobedience of orders." The Corporal was sent out in Pulaski after a deserter, and it is charged that, about the time of the election, he and some Radicals in Pulaski county got into a row, where there was indiscriminate shooting, and during which an old blind man was wounded. It seems that the Corporal was a red-hot Democrat and his views did not suit the people of that benighted section, who thought, as he was in the army, he ought to be a Radical. The Temple, about 1,500, full. Col. Duncan Corporal expressed his opinions to suit himself-hence the row. Private Chumey, who, it is said, was with the Corporal in the disturbance, was put in prison at Somerset on a similar charge. He was subsequently released on bail to answer at the next term of the court.

CANDIDATES IN THE FIELD. The Early Bird, &c.

ioneered before the vote was taken on the charter. His mode was this: "My friend, if the new charter carries. I will want to run for Councilman. I want you to pledge the promised support of a number of percaudidates for Council at an early day to o'clock this afternoon. preyent their friends pledging themselves we hear that John C. Elrod will be a canbring the money.

BASE BALL.

The Match Yesterday.

The game yesterday evening between he Eagles, of this city, and the Alerts visitors), resulted in a very decided vicory for the Eagles, but not by such a number of runs as was the case with the Kentucky club on Monday. The Alerts left for Ohio last night by the L. C. and L. R. R. There will be a match every day this week-this afternoon between the Eagle and Falls City clubs, the Eagle and Kentucky to-morrow, and Friday and Saturday matches by the Kentucky and Eagle with the Southern club of New Orleans. Great sport is expected. The game of yesterday shows the following:

11 d r- o-	Bodiey, p. 5 H. Truman, c. 1 Anderson, f. 5 A. Booth, 1st b. 3 Θ. Truman, r f. 3 Bayless, s s. G. Truman, 1 f.		3	Flit Boy G. V Bod Lat Hic Wr J. 1	er,	181	b.			3535221	0 0
of	Timberlake, 3d b	5	_							27	-
ıd	Scores per Innings 1	9 2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9-	-To	tal
re	Eagle 0	2	4	2	3	3	5	7	1-	000 1 4
		_	_	_	_	_		_

Umpire-E. Frost, of the Kentucky club. Scorers-W. H. Liadsay, for Eagle; T. J. Flinn Passed Balls—Eagle. 8; Alert, 5. Fly Catches Eagle, 9; Alert, 8.
Catches Missod—Eagle, 9; Alert, 7.
Bases on Hits—Eagle, 26; Alert, 13.
Left on Bases—Eagle, 11; Alert, 6.
Passes on Called Balls—Eagle, U; Alert, 1.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Mouthly Report of Health Officer. At the meeting of the Board of Health ast night, Dr. John E. Crowe in the chair, the report of Dr. Alexander Penny, Health Officer, was read and ordered to be filed.

Dr. Jenkins, who had been deputied while in the East to procure a set of instruments for the use of the Board, deivered them to the Presideut, when a vote of thanks was returned to him for his services. At his recommendation the sanitary inspectors were instructed, now that the Board had the proper means, to examine carefully the pork on sale in the markets, and report as to the presence of traching in that kind of food. The set of nstruments purchased consists of a very uperior microscope and numerous speci men slides, a combined thermometer and barometer, and several independent barometers, thus enabling the Board to determine the exact condition of the atmosphere as to heat and moisture at all

No further business being presented the Board adjourned for four weeks.

CRAB ORCHARD SPRINGS.

Grand Fancy Ball Thursday Night. From private advices from our cor respondent at the Springs, we learn that over sixty persons have arrived there for he purpose of participating in the great event of the scason-the fancy ball which comes off on Thursday night, the 19th. Shelbyville, Richmond, Lexington, Lan caster, Danville, Harrodsburg, Stanford and other towns will be well represented.

The success of the fete is assured. afternoon, at Crab Orchard town, about were exchanged and nobody hurt.

A Little Waif.

A very fine, healthy-looking boy baby, that Hannah holds; but Aaron was not so about four or five months old, was left last tentive to Ellen as she thought was her night at the door of a dwelling near the right, and so the parties had a fuss about Louisville and Nashville railroad depot. obtaining contributors to that end. The and dropped their fractured remains upon The magistrate settled the quarrel by It has been sent to the almshouse to be church was densely crowded and the ser- the ground, making an unexpected, under extinction of the remnant of these desperdischarging Aaron altogether, and holding properly cared for. Should any family mon listened to with great interest. Fath- sirable, and altogether not very convenient Hannah to bail in $50 to keep the peace desire to adopt him, he can be found at cr Spalding will preach next Sunday in depression in the flooring. Nobody hurt, alize a sense of security from further depthat institution.

THE GREAT COMMERCIAL CONVEN-

Meeting of Committees. The committees on arrangement, organ zation and finance, met yesterday at the National Hotel, Col. Blanton Duncan presiding. The reports of such committees as were ready, were of great interest, and show that the gentlemen engaged in this work are zealous and unflagging in their

A sub-committee reported on examina tion into the capacity of the Theater and Masonic Temple, both of which had been tendered, free of rent. The Theater, par quette, stage and galleries, would accomnodate about 2,500 persons. Masonic on this point remarked, that from the letters and other information already re ceived, no hall in the city would be suffi cient to accommodate all the delegates resent and leave room for the public He suggested that a suitable lot be ob tained, as convenient to the center of trade as possible, on which to ercet a temporary amphitheater, with capacity to accommodate all who night wish to attend. The adoption of the new charter will re- He had arranged in various Southern cities ire the present city officials, and in view for a collection of beautiful flowers, and of this fact numerous candidates for place other interesting productions of the soil, are already in the field. Indeed, we hear all in living, thriving condition, which the of one gentleman, an official who elec- ladies of Louisville, so celebrated for their excellent taste, would arrange so as to blend the beautiful with the useful.

A committee of seven, on resolution o Wm. F. Duerson, was then appointed as a your vote for me," &c. And going early building committee, consisting of the fol into the race he has been able to secure lowing gentlemen: W. F. Duerson, Julius Dorn, H. G. Van Seggern, Pat. Bannon sons. We have also heard of several per- Phil. German, Samuel A. Miller and J. A sons who think of announcing themselves Krack. This committee will meet at 3

On motion of Mr. Tilden, it was resolved to others in advance. In this connection that the committees now in session should meet again Saturday, at 5 P. M. On modidate in the Twelfth ward for Council; tion of Mr. Aikin, the sub-finance comand that others will soon follow. Come, mittees were instructed to commence gentlemen: we are ready to announce. But their collections next week. On motion of Mr. Dorn, the chairman of this meeting was requested to have a conference with the editors of the various city papers relative to appointing suitable committees to receive and provide for members of the press visiting the convention.

Col. Duncan stated that Governor J. W. Stevenson had consented to deliver the welcoming address at the opening of the onvention, but his formal acceptance of he committee's invitation had not yet been received. On motion of Mr. Bannon the building committee was instructed to nake all necessary arrangements for pro riding music on that occasion; and then the meeting adjourned to Saturday, 5 r. M., when the following committees will re-

Cary, N. E. Milton, Thos. J. Rudd. Committee on Organization—Mayor J. H. Bunce, H. G. Van Seggern, W. F. Rubel, W. H. Meriwether, J. A. Krack, Alex. Duval, W. A. Dulaney, H. G. Phillips, W. F. Duerson, Nathan Bloom, J. J. Clewnes, J. L. Smyser, C. R. Long, V. P. Arm-strong, Phil. T. German, T. L. Burnett, H. W. Wellen, L. Ling, Postbauer, L. Ling, H. W. Walton, Julius Barkhouse, Julius

Dorn, S. A. Miller. Committee on Finance—J. M. Duncan, hairman; W. B. Hamilton, Jas. Bridgeford, Andrew Graham, J. L. Smyser, A Bloom, J. L. Wheat, J. M. Robinson, Ju lius Dorn, Pat. Bannon, Theo. Schwartz, Chas. Tiiden, A. F. Coldewcy, John B. Smith, T. L. Barrett, Andrew Low, Geo Ainslie, John T. Moore, A. Glazebrook, Dennis Long, B. F. Avery, C. N. Warren, F. Reidhar, Isaac Wolf, Geo. W. Norton, J. W. Aiken, J. H. Detchen, Jas. S. Lith-

Another Ohio River Bridge.

It has already been stated that our neighbors in New Albany, not satisfied with their ferry privileges, nor with the connection promised by the great bridge at the head of the falls, are determined upon building a bridge especially for their convenience and benefit. This bridge, so and is composed of some of the most three heats ever run, beating the time of public safety, to affect their exterminaears, one for horse or street cars, and the third for wagons and earriages, with a third for wagons and earriages, with a race has appreciated this stock till it is keeping their own counsels, the party asis estimated, will cost about one million like a moderate price. seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars. is to be of stone, wood and iron. Estimates for the cost, and surveys for the location are now in progress by Mr. Vaugha Assistant Superintendent of the great Ohio-river bridge. It is said that the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago Railroad company will become a heavy stockholder in the new enterprise.

Father Lancaster Spaiding in New York.

New York city, Father Lancaster Spald- it is supposed he met his death during an a shooting affray occurred on Saturday men of Kentucky and the South generallitical light at all, but, as he said, on the be idly passed by. Schools and churches the back entrance, when the floor timbers. must be built for them, and his especial not anticipating such a dead weight, let respectably dressed and laid out, when mission to that city was for the purpose of go all hold about the middle of the floor, St. Andrews' Church, New York city.

THE PRIZE RING. Its Good and its Evil.

The prize fight which took place yesterday between Tom Allen and Charley Gallagher created far less interest here than did that between Allen and Mike McCoole a short time ago; and yet the interest felt in the result was far greater than most people supposed. A large edition of the Evening Express, containing a special telegraphic account of the fight, was exhausted very speedily, leaving the demand by no means fully supplied. Copies were ught not alone by men who are wont to champion of the ring upon such occasions. They were bought by all sorts of people. Merchants, bankers and other sober, sedate and steady men, drew forth their virtuous nickels and cheerfully invested them said: "Boll, I sold fifty-five Expresses to in intelligence from the field of pugilistic strife. In fact, nearly everybody wanted to know which of the two bruisers had been knocked into the middle of next prize fighting news is popular.

And this is the good of the prize ring. It increases the circulation of the newspapers and gives the newsboys an oceasional

It is something of a pity that these brutal exhibitions do not more frequently have a fatal result. If the present crop of roughs who engage in such exhibitions were thinned out by a fatal blow struck now and then, we should soon cease to hear of the prize ring. Death at the end of the fight is the only remedy for the evil. Neither the law nor public opinion can banish it from the land. The law is powerless to do so, and public opinion, if not altogether powerless, is at least indifferent. If these fights must go on, let the parties be encouraged to fight, not for a purse or Sixth street, between Main and Marthe championship, but for a funeral and ket. its expenses.

Personal.

guished Confederate General and eminent ture, where he met his old confrere, General John C. Breckinridge, and other prominent citizens.

Joseph E. Davis, of Vicksburg, Miss. eldest brother of ex-President Jefferson Davis, reached Paris Saturday, on a visit grand-daughter. He left yesterday for Pennsylvania.

Hon. Ed. C. Marshall is to address the

His Reappearance at the Bar. At the courthouse in Lexington, on Satrday afternoon, Gen. Breckinridge made his first effort at the bar since the beginning of the late terrible conflict. He argued before the court in the case of Cook vs. Innis, administrator, which involves ome obstruse legal questions. He also addressed the jury as only Gen. Breckinridge can, the power of his oratory and his handsome personal appearance having the usual striking effect. It has been almost a decade since Gen. B. has attempted the conduct of a legal case, and the long years clapsing that were full of the romance, the victories and defeats, the crushed hearts and blasted hopes of an unsuccessful war. caused this first appearance of Gen. B. at the bar to be regarded with peculiar inter est and his remarks to be listened to with the closest attention.

Abdallah Stock. This stock still maintains its supremacy it is said, will cross below the falls, resting on the trotting course. The Goldsmith one of its piers on Sand Island, leaving Maid, which made the extraordinary race Portland about the foot of Grove street, the other day at Buffalo, was by the late and entering New Albany at the foot of Mr. R. A. Alexander's Abdallah, and is Upper Vincennes street. The company half sister to Almont, Belmont, the Birch character of the gang, men have hereto is already organized under the general in- mare and a number of fine trotters owned fore been exceedingly chary of making corporation laws of the State of Indiana, in this section. The race was the best wealthy citizens of our sister State, and a the celebrated Flora Temple by three tion. number of New York eapitalists. The seconds. Goldsmith Maid was raised in plan is for three tracks—one for steam New York and belongs to Mr. Doble, and of sixteen men, started in pursuit of the foot-way for pedestrians. This bridge, it difficult to get hold of them at anything keeping their own counsels, the party as

Sad Accident.

We are grieved to learn that on Sunday norning last, about 71 o'clock, Charles Hans, first engineer on the steamer Rob Roy, fell overboard in Ouachita river, opposite Mrs. Knight's and was drowned. Every effort was made to recover his body, but all proved unavailing. As soon as she could, after he was missed, the boat put about and instituted an active search. Sunday last, at St. Peter's Church, in Being subject to occasional convulsions, broad ground that the blacks have souls to morning at the First-street stationhouse. save as well as the whites. The wants of A quantity of coal had been wheeled in the men lately held in bondage should not and dumped on the floor of the house, near stantly. but one of the cells rendered insecure.

Young Yet Old Offender.

This morning a colored boy, named Em met Locke, about eleven or twelve years old, was put into jail for a theft committed some two or three weeks ago. He was before the court for knocking down and in nring a little child of Mr. Nally's, but eing discharged on that score, was imme board at the time, and continued to swing until she was headed up stream. Before he alighted he comprehended the situation, and as soon as he realized his condition diately arrested on the other charge Young as he is he has been in jail several times, in fact so often that the jail has become to him almost a second home

News that Sells Best. War news is the best of all to make go their pile" on the one or the other papers sell, but it is difficult to say which is next best of the sensations. Little newsboys were heard discussing the ques tion on the pavement in front of the Gal House. One of them, a bright little chap, day; it was bully." "I beat you," said Bill. "Hollering prize fight beats election ne as all to pieces." That settles it

As Good as New.

The steam fire engine Gilliss, which has ocen at the machine shop of Mr. J. B. Davies, for thorough overhauling and reharvest. This is its only good, and this pairing, was returned to the enginehouse good is far ontweighed by the least of its this morning, as good as new. The cost of this renewing will be about twelve hundeed dollars. A trial was made about 2 c'clock to-day at the intersection of Seventh and Green, and the engine worked Exposition Universelles, 1855, '56, '57, to perfect satisfaction.

TOWN TOPICS.

A general assortment of glass fruit jars, jelly glasses, jars, &c., at the ware room of the Louisville Glass Works, Sixth street, between Main and Market.

The Mason glass fruit jars have tood the test for ten years, and have given entire satisfaction. For sale at the warerooms of the Louisville Glass Works

Gen. Jordan's Case.

Louisville, August 16, 1869. General Robert Toombs, the distin- To the Editor of the Evening Express I see in this morning's paper a state lawyer of Georgia, was in Lexington last ment that may be detrimental to the repuweek, and was the object of mnch atten- tation of Gen. Thomas Jordan. It is the tion. He was hospitably entertained at following: "Gen. Thomas Jordan has an Dr. W. S. Chipley's, an old friend with account at the War Department of $22,500 whom he served in the Georgia Legisla-ture where he met his old conferre Gen-known, but such is the case, that the War Department carries red tapeism to such an excess that no settlement is pronounced complete until squared to the cent. For ustance, Gen. Jordan may have acounted for $22,499 99, still the statement of his account may show one cent yet due. If such be the case, his account to his niece, Mrs. W. W. Alexander. He was accompanied by his nephew and know how the case really stands, but suspect that it is somehow that way. Gen. Jordan is now absent and unable to defend himself. It is not the part of a generous enemy to attack even by covert in-

Committee of Arrangements—Blanton tion.

Trezevant J. M. Keller, J. S. Carpland, W. L. Weller, G. W. Chilton, Warren W. L. Weller, G. W. Chilton, Warren tendered a Professorship in the Lexington should regulate the affairs of Cuba. The questions which underlie Cuban affairs the rest of the story:

Low College. sinuation the absent. ished by our civil war, for they are geographical in their nature. Whether the dvancement of the material interests of the West should be prosecuted to their legitimate conclusion, at the hazard of eniling on the Union the expense of naval establishment, is a simple question, disconnected from other consid erations by the dethroncment of the Queer It will not tend to the solution of this question that all manner of rascality should be imputed to those who have staked their lives on Cuban fidelity. STRANGER.

FISHER, THE OUTLAW.

Two of his Gang Milled by the Sheriff and Posse of Crawford County, Ark. The Mountain Echo, published at Fay etteville, Arkansas, in its edition of the 7th inst., contains the following account: For more than four years, the people of Northwestern Arkansas and Southwestern Missouri, have been kept in constant dread by the bold marandings and murderous ex-ploits of John K. Fisher, and other des-perate men, whose thirst for revenge, for some imaginary cause on the part of Fisher, has not been sa-tiated, though the lives of two score of men have been sacrificed by them. ewards for their capture have been offered by the States of Texas, Missouri and Ar kansas, but from the known desperate any attempt at their arrest, and as a last esort it was determined, as a matter of

To this end Major H. S. Anderson, the certained that two of the gang had taken up quarters for the night at a house occupied by the sisters of Figh. by the sisters of Fisher, near Lindey's Prarie, in the southwest corner of Benton county. Around this house Major Anderson posted his party on Tuesday night, in order to pounce upon their pray as they issued from the house in the morn-

At early dawn, as was anticipated, the wo outlaws, who proved to be Coleman and Education, came out of the house, when demand was made upon them to surrender. Edmuston sought to effect his escape by taking to his heels, but had scarcely got fifty feet from the house when he fell riddled with bullets.

"Coleman fought with absolute desperaing, a favorite clergyman of Louisville, attack. He has left behind him a family tion. He emptied all his pistols, three in preached a sermon in behalf of the freed- who are living in this city or in New Al- number, and in retreating across the creek dropped his gun in the water, thereby ren Break Down.

A regular break down occurred this morning at the First-street stationhouse.

A regular break down occurred this gun, until a well-directed bullet from the pistol of young Brotherton, one of Major Anderson's party, struck him at or near the spine, sending him to grass in

> "The bodies were taken to the house and Major Anderson and party left in pursuit of the remainder of the gang.

"We trust soon to be able to record the ate outlaws, and that the community, so long awed by their depredations, may reredations and murder.

THE RESURRECTIONISTS.

A Husband Finds His Wife on the Dis-secting Table.

From the Cleveland Plaindealer.

Several years ago a regular organization "resurrectionists" existed in the States Wisconsin and Illinois, with headquarters at Chicago. They carried on a thriv-ing trade with the colleges and the medical men of that region, and were ready at all times to furnish one to half a dozen bodies—old or young, male or female. They managed their affairs so quietly and struck the water head foremost. Upon arising from the water he caught a piece carefully that the public knew nothing of the extensive robbery of graves going on until the disclosure of an aggravated in-stance of body-snatching led to an examination of different burial grounds, when the astounding discovery was made that a large proportion of new-made graves had been opened and the bodies removed therefrom.

The case referred to was carefully snppressed at the time; but years have bassed since then, and the facts can now made public without violating any nfidence or wounding the sensibilities of force of the explosion was upward to the starboard and aft, which accounts for the preservation of Marion Wright and Master Hunter, while the mail agent, Copeland. In the little village of R-, in the State of Wisconsin, a young and beautiful married lady died sndderly, and was directly opposite, was blown overboard puried in accordance with the prevailing custom. A day or two after the funeral Jim Damron lost his hat, and after wanthe bereaved husband repaired to the cemdering bareheaded for an hour, was sup-plied with one that had been picked up by etery to make arrangements for suitably nelosing and adorning the family burial ot, when he discovered certain unmistakhave belonged to one of the passengers. It is a black, soft hat, nearly new, and has able evidences that the grave had been disa wide brim, with red living, and bears the inscription: "Trais Premiers Prix.

Calling in the aid of the sexton, the newmade grave was soon opened and the worst fears of the poor widower were con-firmed. The cothu and casing were still n the grave, but the corpse had been reong time in compfehending the situation, and after the wreck was at anchor and the No words can describe the horror and fire had been extinguished, he came for-ward in a state of semi-bewilderment and anguish produced in the mourning hus-band by this terrible discovery. He had read of similar instances of body-snatcharked "what it all meant—what is up?" Damron told him it looked like an explo ing at various points, but never realized how much of suffering and suspense these ion, when "Rip Van Winkle" seemed to comprehend the state of affairs, and at once addressed himself to the work of robberies entailed upon the surviving relatives and friends. The grief over a loved tives and friends. The grief over a loved and loving wife had almost crushed him, The single lady passenger on board act-d with remarkable heroism, at no time xhibiting the slightest manifestations of but the additional blow drove him to frenzy. He resolved that neither effort nor money to recover his wife's remains, fear, but arranged her toilet as deliberand punish the ghouls who had despoiled her grave, should be spared. ately as if she had been dressing for church while her husband was waiting for Officers and detectives were sent out imnediately in all directions, and a tempting Guy Vinyard was sleeping on the larreward made the search a thorough and and side, well aft, and escaped without energetie one. But two days clapsed, and the slightest injury. The most remarkable o clew to the perpetrators of the outrage preservations were those of Captain ad been discovered. The husband himowth, Jim Damron and Marion Wright. self repaired to Chicago, and at once secured the services of a famous detective to work up the case. In less than twentythe texas and pilot house, and had to reak their way out. Marion, with Master ur hours a "point" was obtained. Hunter, was in the room immediately in the rear of the office, which was literally night previous two or three mysterious "packages" had been left with the janitor blown away with all its contents, but he esof the Medical College: and, armed with the necessary official authority, the detec-ive and his employer visited the instituon that afternoon.

The business had been managed so uietly and well that no suspicion was roused in the college, and the visitors were allowed to stroll through the library, Rough and Tumble Fight between a Virginia Radical Congressman and a Lawyer—The Carpet-bagger Cries for Quarter at the End of One Round. the maseum and other interesting depart-The Petersburg (Va.) papers of Satur of the institution. lay contain accounts of a rough and tumfight between James H. Platt, the proached the ante-room leading to the disnewly-elected Radical Congressman from ecting room, several students were oberved to pass themselves in with latch keys, carefully closing the doors behind them It was evident a practical lecture > watched for the coming of another student, and had soon pressed his way through the gallery and into the dissecting room. He was followed closely by the person most interested in the result of this investigaon. The semi-circle of seats, arranged ike those in an amphitheater, was well illed with professional spectators.

On a long table below lay an outstretched form, covered with white cloth from head to foot. The Professor had evidentbeen talking a few minutes to his class, nd was just getting ready to illustrate practically, his subject. On the other side of the corpse several cases of instruments were arranged, and two assistants stood by with aprons on and sleeves rolled that he was not armed. Words ensued, during which Mr. Platt used the epithet "scoundrel" towards Mr. Budd, when the The order to remove the covering from he corpse was given, and as the cloth ed back, exposing the face and bust of female, an exclamation was heard which ent a thrill of terror through the assemly, and blanched the Professor's face with

"Great God! my wife!" A wild and tumultuous scene followed. The frantic husband rushed to the table, istol in hand, and, re-covering the exposed ace of the corpse, threatened with instant death whoever should again uncover or and firm embrace, and, though underneath touch it. The lecturer and his class were in the struggle, evidently possessed an ad- not disposed to dispute the claim thus set up, and rushed pell-mell from the knew or felt this-for he was heard to ery apartment.

A few words complete the story. The rifled grave once more received its original occupant, and for many months a onstant watch was kept over proceedings were commenced against the inedical institution, but the affair was ompromised and settled without a trial. The calling of the "resurrectionists" re-ceived a terrible blow, and body-snatching for years thereafter became both a difficult and dangerous employment.

Deaths from Snakes. rom the Des Moines (Iowa) Register, Aug. 14.

In Thursday's issue we gave an account the effects of a rattlesnake bite—after days of untold torture. Yesterday's mail brought us two more ases. A correspondent, writing from De-orah to the Davenport Journal, tells the ollowing horrible story of death: "A little lad, Robert Clark,, aged ten years, ran out in the field near his father's house, in Franklin, in this county, when he was bit-ten by one of the thrusts of a rattlesnake. He started to run but the snake hung to kim. In the struggle the little fellow was bitten eleven times on the leg below the knee: the snake hnng to the last bite, and frightened child climbed a fence and kicked the snake off with his other foot. He then started for home, and before he reached home he had a fit. His parents did everything that could be done to save him. Medical aid was summoned and exhaust-ed. The child died. In the last hours of is suffering he would run his tongue ont at his mother, spit at the attendants and hiss like a snake, besides having awful onvulsions and heart rending delirinm."

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil of the 10th states that a Mrs. Hall, of that vicinity, whilst hunting for her cow ou Friday last, was bitten by a rattlesnake, and died from the effects of the bite on Sunday. The Bonaparte and Maximilian, whose cause he had warmly espoused, his mind has succenbed nuder this double pressure of material and moral anxiety.

sideration whatever for the good of man- Union man and a Republican; but he kind. He is utterly indifferent to the in- ean't stand the doctrine that a negro is kind. He is utterly indifferent to the interests of the nations who invoke his aid in the settlement of their quarrels. He at least exhibited these disreputable traits gusted with the weakness, imbecility and of sharmater during the late war. If he is treechery of Grant. of character during the late war. If he is treachery of Grant. the god he ought to be, why did he let so many good men perish, and suffer such men as Canby and Ames live on to do the the other day that the President, or the dirty work of an unserupulous party? It the other day that the President, or the dirty work of an unserupulous party? It is unnecessary to ask why Butler and Pope, and the like, were permitted to escape unhurt. Neither God nor man could have dragged them into the path of shot or series. They escaped by persistently livered into the hands of the court and climate, give way at once to this wonder full medicine, if taken regularly according to the directions (which are very simple and require no restraint from whatever canse arising; the effects of any permittions habits, self-inbuse, impotency and climate, give way at once to this wonder full medicine, if taken regularly according to the directions (which are very simple and require no restraint from whatever canse arising; the effects of early permitted to any permittent of limite, give way at once to this wonder full medicine, if taken regularly according to the directions (which are very simple and require no restraint from whatever canse arising; the effects of early permitted to any permittent of limite, give way at once to this wonder full medicine, if taken regularly according to the directions (which are very simple and require no restraint from whatever canse arising; the effects of early permitted to any permitted to this wonder full medicine, if taken regularly according to the directions (which are very simple and require no restraint from whatever canse arising; the effects of early permitted to any permitted to the supplier of the directions (which are very simple and require no restraint from builts, self-inbuse, importance and climate, give way at once to this wonder full medicine, if taken regularly according to the directions (which are very simple and require no restraint from builts, self-inbuse, importance and climate, give way at once to this wonder full medicine, if taken regularly according to the directions (which are very simple and require no restraint from builts, self-inbuse, importance and climate, give way at once to this wonder full medicine, if taken regularly according to the directions (which are very simple keeping out of danger. Nevertheless, if livered into the hands of the court, and the god in question had been disposed to do the clean thing by our unhappy country, it could very easily have been artry, it could very easily have been arranged so as to make them go up the spout leased by the United States Commissioner, by a kick of a mule in the rear of the fight, and was quietly eating a splendid dinner while better and braver men were being given him by a party of Southern gentle-let or the explosion of a shell. But nei- than to be hanged. ther of them, we believe, was ever "botboth of them smelt gunpowder at some period during the war, and why that smell was not suffered to prove fatal must forever remain a my-tery. The bullet which would have placed one or both of them on the list of the mortally wounded, would have been a benefaction to its country. They are a disgrace to the cloth they Chief of the army of the United Grant is the tool of the Radical party, and Canby and Ames are the tools of Grant.

gated by his master, the Radieal party. Mississippi.

administration of General Grant sinks it- debility. the nostrils of honest men for all time to half the price. come. The people of Virginia have as clear a right to express their will through And lunch room is an excellent institutio the ballot-box as have the people of New for those whose stay in Boston will not ad-York or Massachusetts; but that right is mit dining at the table d'hote. This is but trempled under fee her a milieur setter. trampled under foot by a military satrap, traveling public. a petty tool of a party which stoops to the dirtiest means to accomplish its purposes. The war has been over a long time. These outrages ought now to be stopped. But the solid ingredients of Walker's Tonic Bitso long as Radicalism rules, the people ters are, and we have no next well selected must be content to submit to them. Af- and of the best quality. ter a while the end will come-either in We believe that, when combined with the sunshine or storin.

Mrs. Stowe's Schsation.

We should like to know the exact sum Wholesale Druggists and Chemists, Main of money the publishers of the Atlantic Monthly paid Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe for her sensational story about Lord Byron. It ought to have been a very large sum-few women would have written and published it for less than fifty thousand dollars-but it is very likely that Mrs. faces for companions, Stowe perpetrated the outrage for a few paltry hundreds. When she slandered and vilified the whole South in her "Unele Tom's Cabin," she did it without dreaming that it would yield her the many, freckled or rustic complexion who will invest thousands she has since derived from it. Its effects are truly wonderful. When she conceived the idea of writing To preserve and dress the hair, use Lyon's this shameful sensation, she must at first Kathajron. have gone to Packard's Monthly, or the New York Police Gazette, in search of a publisher. Finding them unwilling, perhaps, to become the vehicle for the spreading abroad of so vile a slander upon the dead, she probably turned next to the less serupulous Atlantie Monthly, and Can be killed by a single flask of Lyon's Infound little or no difficulty in effecting a sect Powder. Nothing else kills insects. This satisfactory trade. The whole thing is of genuine. It has E. Lyon's signature on the course a mere Yankee trick, intended to package. All others are trauds. Depot 21 put money in the pockets of the writer Park Row, New York. 1330 Sa, M&W and the publisher. It is a trick, though, which will meet the severest denunciation That every size and style of portraiture of all good people both in this country and in England.

Nobody eares to defend the character of man can make them. Take your babies there. Lord Byron. It eannot be successfully auli 3t3 defended-except against this slander to Copper-Plate Printing and Engraving. which the imagination of Mrs. Stowe has GRAMS, &c., engraved to order. INITIAL given birth—and it matters little now, STAMPING free. Visiting Cards printed from even to the warmest admirers of his geni- plate. A large assortment of the best French us, what is said against him; but every-and American note paper always on hand FRANK MADDEN'S, body must protest against the foul asper- at sion which this Puritanical "sensational-

Byron's sister for the sake of a few dol-

Mrs. Stowe tells us that this story of hers has been known in England for years, but there was no one there who mowed down by leaden hail at the front. men at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. We con-We are not quite sure that either Can- gratulate Mr. Pratt upon his escape. It by or Ames ever heard the whiz of a bul- is better, any day, to eat a good dinner

GRANT wrote Marshal Barlow to hold tled' as Butler was by Beauregard, nor the Texan Pratt "at any cost." And the everlastingly "chawed up" as Pope was next day the U. S. Commissioner, one of by Storewill Jackson. It is likely that his own appointees, ordered the man discharged because he was innecent. What a poor, pitiful creature is this President.

CITY ITEMS.

Messrs, Hastings & Lewis, successor to Prather & Smith, 160 Main street, between Tetter, and Mercurial Diseases. $1 25 per bottle Fourth and Fifth, having a desire to please all, will cater particularly to young men, and, wear, and, if General Grant were worthy with this view, have gotten up and now inthe position he holds as Commander-in- troduce to the market, a young gents' fashlonable slik hat, manufactured in their own house; and as tiris firm is the first in the mar States, he would break their swords ket with fall styles, as adopted by the Hatters have them drummed out Association of New York, for the coming fail of the service. But, unfortunately, trade, their enterprise and energy certainly

They have also a "Cuban slik hat," very beautiful, an exceedingly new and "knobby Canby's rascally intermeddling with the style for young men, which hat, they assure iting the island of St. Croix for their Within the next ten days Canby will health experienced endusor the rand Insurance and Savings Co., he will force every member elect to take there produced upon many of the invalids the infamous iron-elad oath, or give place who were, like ourselves, seeking health, to the candidate who received the next and, upon inquiry and investigation, ob- Amount of capital stock paid up highest vote. This will make both Houses tained a full history, of its medicinal vir- Cash surplus July 1st, 1869...... of the Legislature strongly Radical, and tues. He was delighted and surprised, enable them to send two Radical advenand determined to make it the turers to the United States Senate. No basis of a tonic and restorative doubt Canby hopes to be one of them him- medicine. The result of his labors self. All honest men everywhere will re was a glorious success for himself and joice to see that hope blasted, as that of suffering humanity. The eelebrated Plan-Swayne was blasted in Alabama and as TATION BITTERS were thus made known to that of Ames is destined to be blasted in the world. Being an article of real merit, In consenting to this most damnable wholly upon the vegetable kingdom for founded on new principles, and relying outrage which Canby is about to perpe- its medicinal effects, it worked a rapid trate upon the people of Virginia. the revolution in the treatment of physical

aul8 eod3t&wl

American House Refectory

What is Said of Walker's Tonic Bitters by those who Know their Worth. We have seen the formula and know what fine Bourbon selected by Mr. Walker, the result is a tonic nusurpassed by any in the

HENRY CHAMBERS & CO., street, between Sixth and Seventh, Louis-

Pretty Women.

A comparatively few ladies monopolize the beauty as well as the attention of society. This ought not to be so, but It is, and will be while men are foolish and single out pretty

This can ail be changed by using Hagan's Maguolia Balm, which gives the bloom of youth and a refined, sparkling beauty to the complexion, pleasing, powerful and natural No lady need complain of a red, tanned, seventy-five cents in Hagan's Magnoila Balin

au10 eodlm

A Peck of Cockroaches

is their natural enemy. See that you get the Extra fine violin and case.

Jeffer-on street, bet, Third and Fourth

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Life-Saving Reformation. A radical change has been introduced in the practice of medicine. Physicians have ceased to torture and prostrate their patients, Instead of pulling down, they build up; instead of assaulting nature, they assist her, Cupping, leeching, blistering, venesection, calomel, antimony, shuifting narcotics and years, but there was no one there who cared of assaulting nature, they assist her, cared to make it public. It is not very care and tear of the vital of the cared of assaulting nature. Outpublic paractel candle and the cared to make it public. It is not very cared to make it public. It is not very cared to make it public. It is not very cared to make it public. It is not very care and tear of the vital of the cared of assaulting nature. Outpublic the cared of assaulting nature. In the c

Philosophy of Marriage. Indigestion; Flatnience and Nervons Dienses accounted for; Marriage Philosophica ly Considered, &c. These lectures will be for warded on receipt of four stamps by address the Secretary Marriage Apartons, 74 Western Conference and Programme 12 Marriage 12 Programme 12 Progr

BATCHELOR'S HAIR DYE. This splendid Hair Dye is the best in the world; the only true and perfect Dye; harmiess, reliable, instantaneous; no disappointment; no ridiculous thits; remedies the illeflects of bad Dyes; invigorates and leaves the Hair soft and beautiful, BLACK or BROWN. Sold by all Druggists and Perfumers; and properly applied at Batchelor's Wig Factory, No. 16 Bond street.

SAMARITAN'S GIFT. The only cure for diseases arising from indiscretion Baisam Copaiba and Mercury discarded. Only ten pills to effect a cure. Purely vegetable. Cures in from two to four days, thus avoiding exposure and trouble. Male packages $2; Female $3.

Samaritan's Root and Herb Juice, The only permanent cure for Scrofula, Ulcers. Sores, Sold by RAYMOND & CO., and OWEN & SUT-DESMOND & CO., Proprietors, sels M. W&Salv 915 Race street, Phila

STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE Standard Fire Insurance Co., Of New York, on 1st day of July, 1869.

Canby's rascally intermeddling with the political affairs of Virginia, and that of Ames with those of Mississippi, can be accepted only as the work of Grant, insti
accepted only as the work of Grant insti
accepted only as the work of Grant insti
accepted only as the work of Grant

Of Virginia, at Richmond, on the 1st

A detailed statement of the foregoing is on file in the Auditor's office, Franklort, also in the Jefferson County Court Clerk's office, JOHN BARBEE, Agent, au1712t No. 2 Merchants' Bank Building.

STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION

OF THE Etna Insurance Company, Of New York, on 1st day of July, 1869.

Total liabilitles

JAMES R. GOLLADAY'S

Twenty sixth

BOWLINGGREEN, Ky., Aug. 23, '69

15,000 Tickets and Every One a Prize--- No Blanks,

Tickets can be had at W. Scott Glore's Book Store, Louisville, and at my Book Store in Bowlinggreen; or by mail, inclosing 81 for a Single Ticket, or six Tickets for 85.

New & Splendid List of Premiums

frame house containing six room with hall, front and side porch, g cellar, &c., iot 66 feet by 150 feet de located in Bowlinggreen, on Green street, two squares from Main, in good repair, with clear title, valued at....... orse, buggy and larnous e, buggy and harness e Gabler rosewood plano, 7-octave.... arter acre lot, situated in Bowling-Quarter acre lot, situated in Bowlinggreen.
One acre lot, near the corporation and Fair Ground in Bowlinggreen.
A fine set of chamber furniture.
A spiendid mirror, 3½x8 feet.
Kirby's combined reaper and mower.
A lady's diamond watch.
Lady's gold watch and chain.
Ten prizes, each £20 in greenbacks.
Fine suit of clothes, made to order, including hat and boots.
Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine.
Thirty-six yards all wool 2-piy carpet.
Fine rep sik dress.
Suit of clothes, made to order.
Fine sliver watch and chain.
Music box, playing eight tanes.
Set of Waverly novels, 50 vols.
A splendid Martin guitar.
One hundred tickets in next drawing.
Fifty prizes, each £250 in gold.
Silk dress. Gultar ..... Sliver-plated tea set..... Flue marble-top bureau ..

S. T. SUIT & CO.,

DEALERS EXCLUSIVELY IN

PURE KENTUCKY BOURBONS

LOUISVILLE, KY.

TRANSPORTATION.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF LOUISVILLE AND NASHVILLE RAILROAD, No. 1 Memp. & Nash. Mall (Daily except 10:30 P. M Sunday.)

Sunday.)

No. 3 New Orleans

Exp. (Daily.)

No. 17 Nash. Expr.,

(Daily.)

No. 7, Mount Vernon

Exp. (Dally except sunday.)

2:00 P. M. Sunday.)
No. 13 Bardstown Ac.
(Daily except Saturdays.) 8:30 A. M

JEFFERSONVILLE, MADISON AND INDIANAPO-JEFFERSONVILLE, MADISON AND INDIANAPO-LIS RAILROAD,
6:30 A. M. (Daily ex'pt Sunday.)
9:50 A. M. (Daily ex'pt Sunday.)
2:30 P. M. (Daily ex'pt Sunday.)
11:30 P. M. (Daily ex'pt Sunday.)
6:30 A. M. (Daily ex'pt Sunday.)
6:30 A. M. (Daily ex'pt Sunday.) LOUISVILLE & CINCINNATI SHORT LINE R. R. .....No. 5, Express..... 11:45 A. M. ....No. 7, Mail..... LOUISVILLE AND LEXINGTON RAILROAD. 5:35 A. M. \ ....No. I, Passenger.... { 10:45 A. M ...No. 3, Passenger .... 6:40 P. M. 5:10 P. M. No. 5. Lagrange Ac. 8:15 A. M. (Dally ex pt Sunday.) 8:15 A. M. LOUISVILLE, NEW ALBANY AND CHICAGO R. R. 9:30 P. M. (Daily ex pt Sunday.) 7:00 P. M.

CLOSING AND ARRIVAL OF MAILS. A. M. P. M

New York extra mall..... ...12:00 Saint Louis Mall .... 7:30 Indianapolis & Chlc. mall.... 7:30 Mem., Clark, & N. O. mail... 9:30 1:30 Nash., Chat'n'go, &c., mail....... { 1:30 10:30 Leb. & Rich, Brinch mali..... 9:00 Lex., Frank. & way mail.....10:40 1:00 New Albany and Jeff. mail........ {

LOUISVILLE AND CINCINNATI Short-Line Railroad ALL RAIL-NO CHANGE OF CARS. TIME FIVE HOURS Fare $3.50.

Omnibus Transfer from Depot to Hotel or Residence in Cincinnati free.

rains Leave.

Trains Arrive,
130 A. M.) ...Cincinnati Express... (11:45 A. M.
135 P. M. ...Cincinnati Express... (10:40 P. M.
140 P. M.) ...Cincinnati Express... (4:55 A. M.
130 A. M.) ...Lexington Express... (6:35 P. M.
130 P. M. ...Lexington Express... (6:35 P. M.
135 P. M. Lagrange Accommodat'n 8:10 A. M.
136 Persons taking either of the express trains or Cincinnati arrive there ten hou s sooner han via Mall Boats. The 3:55 train runs ality.

daily.

Trains run by Lexington time, which is five minutes faster than Louisville time.

The 5:30 A. M. and 2:20 P. M. trains connect at Eminence with stages for Shelbyville. Fare to Shelbyville, $2.25, Tickets for sale at Depot, Galt House, Third and Main, and Louisville Hotel.

au9 tf SAM. GILL. Gen'l Snp't.

JEFFERSONVILLE, MADISON AND Indianapolis Railroad.

North and West. PASSENGERS taking this route arrive in Eastern cities eleven hours in advance of those taking the United States mallboat same Trains leave and arrive at the Jenersonville (immediately opposite Louisviiie), as

The Only All-Rail Route to the East,

6:30 A. M., daily 6:30 A. M., daily ex. Sun 11:10 A. M., daily ex. Mon 3:50 P. M., daily ex. Sun urday.
Sunday Night Express leaves at 11:00 p. m., onnecting East and West at Seymour and points.

Silver Palace (day and night) cars on the 9:50 A. M. train run through to New York via. Cambridge City, Columbus, Ohio, and Pittsburg, without change.

Through Car will leave on 200 without change. ough Car will leave on 2:30 p. m. train on

Through Car Will leave to 2:30 P. M. train birough to Chleago WITHOUT CHANGE. For condensed through time-tables and conections see small bills, and call at the conpany's office, corner Third and Main str Lonisville, Ky. HORACE SCOTT S. E. CAREY, Gen. Ticket Agent.
Jeffersonville, Ind., May 25th, 1869. my22

PACIFIC MAIL STEAMSHIP CO.'S THROUGH LINE TO California and China.

TEAMERS leave Pier No. 42 North River FEAMERS leave Pier No. 42 North River foot of Canal street, at 12 o'clock noon, Except when these days fall on Sunday then the day previous, August II.—ALASKA, Capt. GRAY, connecting with Colorado, Capt. Parker. August 21.—IIENRY CHAUNCEY, Capt. Connecting with Sacramento, Capt.

100 pounds of baggage allowed free to each dult passenger. Medicines and attendance free.
All departures touch at Acapnico; those o.
the 1st and 2lst connect at Panama with steamers for South Pacific ports, 1st and 11th for Central American ports, and those of the 1st touch at Manzanillo.

Ist touch at Manzanillo.

FOR JAPAN AND CHINA.

Steamer of Ang. 11th, 1869, connects closely with steamer JAPAN, leaving San Francisco September 4th, 1899, for Japan and China.

For freight, passage, tickets and all further information, apply at the office, on the wharf, foot of Canal street, North River, New York.

Agents Wanted --- $10 a Day. TWO $10 MAPS FOR $4. LLOYD's

PATENT REVOLVING DOUBLE MAPS Two Coutinents, America and Europe, and America with the United States portion on an immense scale.

These great Maps, now just completed, 64x62 inches large, show every place of importance, all Railroads to date, and the latest alterations in the various European states. These Maps are needed in every school and family in the land—they occupy the space of one Map, and by means of the Reverser, either side can be thrown front, and any part brought level to the eye. County rights and large discount given to good agents. gents.
Apply for Circulars, Terms, and send moey for and sec Sample Maps first; if not sold taken back on demand.

Also ready, a $25 steel and plate Hiustrated subscription book, "De Soto, the discoverer of the Mississippi river."

J. T. LLOYD, Je8 3m

23 Cortlandt street, N. Y. American Broiler,

PATENTED JULY 21, 1868.

GREATEST cheap cuinnary invention of the age. Retains all the juices and flavors of meats, and improves the quality 100 per cent. Brolls in less than haif the time of any other. Saves labor and fuel. Simplicity and convenience combined. Unqualifiedly indorsed by every one using it. Fits all stoves and ranges. Frice only $2. Call and see it.

To Money refunded for any returned.

Country trade supplied by dozen at the usual discount. See advertisement in tomorrow's Courier-Journal, second page J. S. LITHGOW & CO., my20 Tu&Thtf 85 and 87 Main stree

W. WYATT, MANUFACTURER OF

SILVER & WOODEN SHOW CASES. AND DEALER IN

French & American Window Glass LOOKING GLASSES, Looking Glass Plates, and Show Cards No. 194 Main street bet. Fifth and Sixth'

WINTERSMITH.

-OR-

SANTONIN

LOZENCES!

-THE-

Most Reliable Vermifuge

EVER OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC.

Compounded of Purely Vegetable Ingredients.

ENTIRELY HARMLESS.

Safe for Children of any Age.

Destroy Worms.

NEVER FAILS TO: EFFECTUALLY

ess, active principle of the European Wormseed (Semen Contra) its consumption has wonderfully increased. The seed in substance has been jong and favorably known as a vermifuge, but its unpleasant taste and odor, and the bulk of the dose, have inter fered with its use in this country. At this time the Santonin on account of its boliss tasteless, and a reliable vermifuge, is fast displacing all other remedies for worms the day depend for their efficacy upon the Santonin which they contain; but in these it ls found in varying proportions and of uncer-

My purpose is to present to the medica: profession this valuable medicine in a simple, reliable and agreeable form, in determ ined quantities and of uniform composition To accomplish this, I have prepared these lozenges with great carc, of Santonin of tested purity, very carefully distributed throughout tile mass from which the Lozenges are formed. The materials have been so compounded that the Lozenges will stand unaltered by time or climate. The boxes are also impervious to moisture from the atmosphere. To give the Santonin time for full effect up on the worms, the addition of any purgative medicine to the Lozenges has been avoided. It may, therefore, be proper, two or three hours after the administration of the second lose, to use some slmple purgative for the purpose only of discharging the worms.

These Lozenges contain only pure Sugar and pure Santonin. The only merit I claim is the ascertained purity of the ingredlents, and its thorough and careful distribution, so that each Lozenge contains its exact portion of Santonin; the dose sufficiently indicating the quantity. C. H. WINTERSMITH.

Thousands of Children Die Annually for the Want of a Reliable Worm Destroyer.

WINTERSMITH'S

· -OR-

Satonin Lozenges,

Can be depended on as a Certain Remedy, Pleasant to the Taste, and Children are Fond of Them.

For Sale by all Druggists.

PETER, POWERS & GOOPER

(Successors to Wilson, Peter & Co) Wholesale Druggists,

272 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.,

General Wholesale Agents

J. F. CANINE, DENTIST

DENTISTRY.

Ky. Teeth extracted without pain by the to of the Nitrous Oxide Gas. jal4 t REMOVAL.

DR. W. H SHADOAN Der

LAW CARDS.

THOS, E. BRAMLETTE. BRAMLETTE & DURRETT, Attorneys & Counsellors at Law, Office at 991/2 east side Fifth street, between Market and Jefferson streets.

LOUISVILLE, KY., WILL practice in all the Courts, both State and Federal, in the city, and give spe-cial attention to cases in the Court of Ap-peals.

My 28 d3m

JNO. W. BECKLEY, Attorney at Law, LOUISVILLE, KY. OFFICE-No. 6 Court Place. ap20 tf

PERRIN'S NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

OFFICE IN COURIER-JOURNAL BUILDING, No. 112 West Jefferson Street, Agency.

LOUISVILLE, KY. A DVERTISEMENTS taken for all leading KENTUCKY & SOUTHERN PAPERS

At Publishers LOWEST CASH RATES. Papers kept on file.
As to promptness and reliability refers to the publishers of city papers and business men generally. Address
Je2 if ... W. HENRY PERRIN.

PURE COPPER WHISKY.

To steam used in the process of distilla-tion. Nothing but the best material sed, and great care taken to make this the Best Whisky In the State. Parties destring to visit the distillery can do so by applying at my office, No. 44 Fourth street.

Removal.

OUTHERN DEPARTMENT GLOBE MU-TUAL LIFE 1881 RANCE COMPANY, of New Y. rk. Office removed to No. 120 Main street, between Third and Fourth, up stairs, over Kitts & Werne. GEO. E. COOKE, jy311m General Agent for Kentucky.

THE CHEAPEST PLACE To Euv in Town.

FITCH & LINDSEY, Cheap, Simple, Comfortable & Dara

75 Fourth Street,

Jy9 eod2m Next door to National Hotel.

Notice. SOMETHING NEW EVERY Liquor Dealer should invest. Any person sending to my address $2.00, I will send them a recipe for making first-class person sending to my address 22 00, I will send them a recipe for making first-class Liquor, such as best Cognac Brandy, Peach Brandy, Jumaica Rum, Santa Cruz Rum. Holland Gin or Bay Ihm. Either of the above are worth hundreds of dollars to any liquor dealer. Or I will send the above six recipes for $10.00, upon receipt of money. The spirits made after these recepes shmulate the genuine most wonderfully, and are calculated to deceive even expert tasters.

The ingredients for the above can be obtained from mearly any drug store.

This is no humbing. Now is your time to invest your money. Instiness strictly confidential. Give your full name, with post-office, county and State.

Address

A. W. DELETTREZ, An9 tf

Kentucky Whiskies.

Kentucky Whiskies.

Real Cown BBLS Burdon county, from 18

BBLS Bouchon county, from 18 months to 4 years old;
550 bbls Nolin (Hardin County), 7 months old;
760 bbls Nelson, Anderson and Mercer, 2 years old;
For sale by W. H. WALKER & CO., 25 Main street, bet. First and Second, auil 3m Louisville, Ky.

Wines and Brandies.

5 % ca ks Port;
7 % casks Sherry;
4 % casks Cognac Brandy;
100 cases Imported Table Cluret;
In store and for sale by
W. H. WALKER & CO.,
25 Main street, b. t. First and Second,
auil 3m

Krug & Co. Champagne Wine WE are the sole Agents in Kentucky for the sale of this fine Wine, and sell at mporers' i rices.

W. H. WALKER & CO,,

25 Main street, bet. First and Second, anli 3m Louisville, Ky.

DICK MOORE & SON, No. 144 West Green Street, HAVE the exclusive privilege of Posting on and Distributing Bills on the Twelfth, Broadway and Sixth street cars; also, Twelfth, Jefferson and Second street; Preston to Lion Garden; Portland avenue and Main through Rutchertewn.

PETER, POWERS & COOPER. (Successors to WILSON, PETER & CO.),

WANTED.

WANTED-IMMEDIATELY WANTED-COOK-A white gir or a reliable person.
Address "Box 219, P. O." WANTED-COOK-A white w Coos and Wash for a small fa

nome for a capable person.

Apply at the Express office. WANTED-TO PURCHASE-A of mut, Chestnut, Broadway or Breck streets, Address "Box C," Postoffice, cation and terms.

WANTED-TO RENT-A House from five to nine rooms. A No ant can be secured by addressin; "L. Conress of the continuous conti

WANTED—All Louisville merchan's wish to Advertise in Southern Pr to do so through PERRIN'S ADVERTIS AGENCY, No. 112 West Jefferson st. j WANTED-HOUSE-A small resident a pleasant locality. Rent not to ex $100 a year. Address A. B. C., at this office

WANTED-HOUSE-A small dwelling three or four rooms, kitchen, dc., good tenant. Address, stating terms, loca dc., A. B., at Evening Express office.

INSURANCE.

KENTUCKY AGENCY

ETNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPAN

Hartford, Conn. Assets, January 1, 1989. Receipts for 1868. Paid for iosses by death 1868. Policies Issued in 1868. Divisible surplus..... Paid to Widows and Orphans, through this agency, since September, 1865 ...

For agencies in Kentucky apply to SLAUGHTER S C General Agents. No. 5 Hamilton Building, Cor. Sixth & jy9eodtf Lonisvi NORBORNE

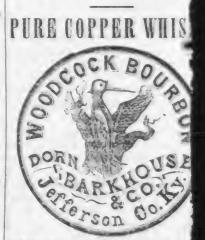

HENRY W. GRAY & CO No. 144 1-2 MAIN STRE Security, of New York - -Commerce, of Albiny, N. T.

Atlantic, Brooklyn, N. Y. -

ATWOOD & NICHOLAS INSURANCE AGEN Pacific Insurance Co., of California (gold), - $1 International Insurance Co., of New York. - -Enterprise Insurance Co., of Cincinnati, . . .

Woodcock Bourb

Union Insurance Co., of Louisville, . . . .

WE offer to the trade our large r tax paid at the lowest DORN, BARKHOUSE & No. 3 Main ALMOND

PATENT ELASTI

HEY can be made with great ra and no expensive preparat to engage in their manufa

STATE& COUNTY RIGHTS FOR S

AT LOW PRICES.

rompt attention. Partners are wanted immediately to manufactories in New York city, Ch Iti., St. Louis, Mo., and several other ceive prompt attention.

JOHN H. ALMON ani4 S.M.Th 3m Inventor and Pate

STAIR RODS DECNIE, FIRE DROP FIX The Original : Ballable Fixtur It can be app

STAIR PLATE ARTHUR PETER. W. W. POWERS, W. T. & J. MERSEREAU, 62 Duane St.

> Kentucky Pueumatic Gas C THIS Company is organized for the poses of introducing Pneumatic Gas

Wholesale Bruggists,
No. 272 MAIN STREET,
Between Seventh and Eighth, 1911f Louisville, Ky.

Private Residences. Public and 1
vate Institutions,
v

AND PROPERTY AND AND PROPERTY.

LORD BYRON.

A Frightful Revelation Concerning

18 IT A ROMANCE!

[From the Cincinnati Gazette, 17th.] [From the Cincinnati Gazette, 17th.]

It has long been a matter of curious conjecture why Lord Byron became separated from his wife, and society has been at a loss to know whether the man or the woman was chiefly to blame. Recently, Byron's former mistress, the Countoss Guiccioli, later the Marquise de Boissy, has written a book in which the character of her paramour is highly exalted, while his wife is spoken of in very disparaging terms. Mrs. H. B. Stowe, while in England, made the acquaintance of Lady Byron, who has since died, and obtained from her the facts in her bistory, with liberty to Byron, who has since died, and obtained from her the facts in her history, with liberty to make them public if ever there should be a sufficient reason for so doing. The appearance of Madame de Boissy's book seems to Mrs. Stowe a sufficient justification, and she has therefore embodied the facts in a contribution to the Albertia Morthly for Sentember. bution to the Atlantic Monthly for September.
To print the article entire would cover nearly a page of the Gazeite. We have, therefore, abridged it, chiefly by cutting short the coplons quotations from Byron's works, which Mes. Stowe has cited in illustration of her

BYRON'S CONCEALMENT OF FACTS.

Her paper opens by showing how studi-ously, and heretofore successfully, Lord By-ron endeavored to conceal the true relations between himself and his wife. We quote: Any one who would wish to see a specimen of the skill of the honorable port in mystification will do well to read a letter to Lady Byron which Lord Byron, on parting from Lady Blessfurton, inclosed for her to read, just before he went to inclosed for her to read, just before he went to Greece. He says:

"The letter which I inclose I was prevented from sending by my despuir of its doing any good. I was perfectly sincere when I wrote it and am so still. But it is difficult for me to withstand the thousand provocations on that subject which both friends and foce have for seven years been throw-ing in the way of a man whose feelings were once quick, and whose temper was never patient." 'To Lady Byron, care of the Hon. Mrs. Leigh. London:

"PISA, November 17, 1821.

"PISA, November 17, 1821.

"I have to acknowledge the receipt of 'Ada's hair,' which is very soft and pretty, and nearly as dark already as mine was at twelve years old, if I may judge from what I recollect of some in Augusta's possession, taken a: that age. But it don't curl—perhaps from its being let grow.

"I also thank vou for the inscription of the date and name, and I will tell you why: I believe that they are the only two or three words of your rend-writing in my possession. For your letters I returned, and except the two words, or rather the one word, 'household,' written twice in an old account-book, I have no other. I burnt your last note, for two reasons: firstly, it was written in a style not very agreeable; and, secondly, I wished to take your word without documents, which are the worldly resources of suspicious people.

bresame we both nope will be long after either of the parents.

"The time which has elapsed since the separation has been considerably more than the whole brief period of our union, and the not much longer one of our prior acquaintance. We buth made a bitter mistake; but now it is over, and irrevocably so. For, at thirty-three on my part, and a few years less on yours, though it is no very extended period of life, still it is one when the habits and thought are generally so formed as to admit of no modification; and as we could not agree when younger, we should with difficulty do so now.

with tanding everything, I considered our re-union as not impossible for more than a year after the separation; but then I gave up the hope entirely and forever. But this very impossibility of reunion seems to me at least a reason why, on all the few points of discussion when can arise ween us, we should preserve the courtestes of fe, and as much of its kindness as people who have never to meet may preserve perhaps more-sail, than hearer connections. For my own part, I am violent, but not malignant; for outy are Eever to meet may preserve perhaps more easily, than Learer connections. For my own part, I am violent, but not management for outly tresh protocations can awaken my resentments. To vou, who are colder and more concentrated, I would just hint that you may sometimes missage the death of a cold angor for dignity, and a worse feering for dury. I assure you that I bear you now (whatever I may have done) no resentment whatever. Remember that, If you have signed me in aught, this forgiveness is something more still, if the true, as the moralists say, that the most off-inding are the least forgiving.

"Whether the offense has been solely on my side, or reciprocal, or on vours chiedry, I have cased to reflect upon any but two things, viz., that vou are the mother of my child, and that we shall never meet again. I think if you also consider the two corresponding points with reference to myself, it will be better for all three.

"Yours ever. NOEL BYRON."

The arriess Thomas Moore introduces this letter in the "Life" with the remark:

"There are few, I should think, of my readers who will not agree with me in pronouncing that, if the author of the following letter had not right on his side, the had, at least, most of those good feelings which are found in general to accompany it."

The reader is requested to take notice of the important admission that this letter was never sent to Lady Byron at all. It was, in fact, never intended for h.r., but was a nice little dramatic performance, composed simply with the view of acting on the sympathies of Lady Blessington and Byron's numerous female admirers; and the ground of view it was very nearly done and deserged with as a work of hiele are larged. With a morbid fascination, yet miling him with a morbid fascination, yet miling important admission that this lotter was never sent to Lady Byron at still. It was, in fact, never intended for her, but was a nice little dramatic performance, composed simply with the view of acting on the sympathics of Lady Blessington and Byron's numerous female admirers; and the reader will agree with us, we think, that in this point of view it was very nearly done and serves immortality as a work of high art. For six years he had been plunging into every kind of vice ann a xcess, pleading his shritered domestic joys, and his wife'is obdurate beart, as the apology and the impelling cause; filling the air with his shricks and complaints concerning the shaders which pursued him, while he allied letters to the construence. Duringal time with reader was the bear of Lady Byron was unbroken, though bord Byron not only draw in private on the sympathies of his female admirers, but employed his islents and position as an author in holding her up to contempt and ridicule before thousands of readers. We shall quote at length his slide of the story, which he published he the first Canto of Don Jusan, that the reader may see how much reason he had for assuming the injured tone which he did in the letter to Lady Byron, one day the wind will be a submirer and the indeficuse exposure of the whole story on his own side which we are about to quote, were the only communications that could have reached her solitude.

Bus PORTEATIUES OF HIS WIPE.

In the following verses, Lady Byron is represented as Donna Inez and Lord Byrou as bon Jose; but the incidents and alusions were so very pointed that nobody for a moment deubted whose history the poet was narrating:

"His mother was a learned lady, famed For every branch of every science known nevery christian language ever named, With virtues equaled by her wit alone; the condition of his heart and very thristian language ever named, with virtue was her manganimity, Her wit (she sometimes tried at wit) was Auticall. Her serious asynings darkened to subfinality, Her wit (she sometime

"Her favorite science was the mathematical, Her noblest virtue was her magnanimity, Her wit (she sometimes tried at wit) was attic all, Her serious asyings darkened to sublimity:
In short, in all things she was fairly what I call
A prodigy—her morning dress was dimity,
Her evening silk, or in the summer, muslin
and other stuffs, with which I won't stay puz-

. . . . "Some women use their tongues—she looked a lecture, Each eve a sermon, and her brow a homily, And all in all sufficient self-director, Like the lamented late Sir Samnel Romitly; "In short, she was a walking calculation-

Miss Edgeworth's novels stepping from their overe,
Or Mrs. Trimmer's books on education,
Or Coeleb's wife set out in quest of lovers.
Morality's prim personification,
In which not envy's self a flaw discovers.
To others' share 'let female errors fall,'
For she has not even one—the worst of all.

"O, she was perfect, past all parallel
Of any modern female saint's comparison;
So far above the cunning powers of hell
Her guardian angel had given up his garrison;
Even her minutest motions went as well
As those of the best time-piece made by Harri-

"Perfect she was, but as perfection is included in this haughty world of ours-

"He was a mortal of the careloss kind,
Which no great love for learning or the learn's
Who chose to go where 'er he had a mind,
and never orenued his lad; was concerned;
The world, as usual, wickedly inclined
To see a kingdom or a house o'erturned,
Whispered he had a mistress, some said two,
But for domestic quarrels one will do.

"Don Jose and Donna Inez lead
For some time an unbappy sort of life,
Wishing each other not divorced, but dead;
They lived respectably as man and wife.
Their conduct was exceedingly well-bred,
And gave no outward sign of in ward strike,
Unitia i length the smothered fire broke out,
And put the business past all kind of doubt.

For Inez called some druggists and physicians "For Inex catted some turgists" and physicials, and tried to prove her loving lord was mad; but as he had some lucid intermissions, she next decided he was only bad.

Yet when they asked her for her depositions, No sort of explanation could be had, save that her duty both to man and God Required this conduct, which seemed very odd.

And opened certain trunks of books and letters, All which might, if occasion served, be quoted, And then she had all Serilie for abettors, Besides her good old grandmother (who doted); The hearers of her can: became repeaters. Then advocates, Inquisitors, and judges, Some for amusement, ethers for old grudges.

"And then this best and meekest woman bore With such serenity her husband's woes; Just as the Spartan ladies did of vore, Who saw their spouses killed, and nobly chos Never to say a word about them more. Caimly she heard each calumny that rose. And saw his agonies with such sublimity. That all the world exclaimed, 'What magnanimity!'"

This is the longest and most elaborate version

why he marked the most its over, and woodly so. For, at thirty-three on my part, a few years less on yours, though it is no ye extended period of life, still it is one when habits and though it are generally so formed agree when younger, we should with diffuse on now-law to no modification; and as we could agree when younger, we should with diffuse on you that, not have the say all this, because I own to you that, not hat off geyerything. I considered our re-

Sea.
That usual paragon, an only daughter,
Who seemed the cream of equantitity
'Fill skimmed, and then there was some milk and water.
With a light shade of blue, too, it might be deadly secret that may cold at the bottom of his heart.

When he went to visit Miss Milbanke's parents as her accepted lover, she was struck with his manner and appearance; she saw bim moody and gloomy, evidently wrestling with dark and desperate thoughts, and anything but what a happy and accepted lover should by. She sought an interview with him aloue, and told him that she had observed that he was not haven in the had observed that he was not happy in the engagement, and magnanimously added that, if on review he found he had been mistaken in the nature of his feelings, she would immediately release him, and they should remain only friends.

MOTTING GINNER ... SECURE

Miss Martineau says:

"At the altar she did not know that she was a sacrifice; but before sunset of that winter day she knew it. If a judgment may be formed from her face and at itude of despair when she alighted from the carriage on the afternoon of her marriage day. It was not the traces of tears that won the sympathy of the old butler, who stood at the open door. The bridegroom jumped out of the carriage and walked away. The bride alighted and to the steps alone, with a countered and came in the steps alone, with a countered and came in the steps alone. ed and came up the steps alone, with a counte-nance agonized and listless with evident horror nance agonized and listiess with evident horror and despair. The old servant longed to offer his arm to the voung, lonely creature, as an assurance of sympathy and protection. From this shock she certainly railied, and soon. The necuniary difficulties of her new home were exactly what a devoted spirit like hers was fitted to encounter. Her husband bore testimony, after the catastrophe, that a brighter being, a more sympathizing and agreeable companion, never blessed any man's home. When he afterward called her cold and mathematicat, and over plous, and so forth, it was when public opinion had gone against him, and when he had discovered that her fidelity and mercy, her silence and magnanimity, might be relied on, so that he was at full fiberty to make his part good, as far as she was concerned.

interry to make his part good, as far as she was concerned.

"silent she was even to her own parents, whose feetings she magnanimously spared. She did not act rashly in leaving him, though she had been most rash in marrying him."

Not at once did the full knowledge of the dreadful resility into which she had entered come upon the young wife. She knew vaguely, from the wild avowals of the first hours of their marriage, that there was a dreadful secret of guilt, that Byron's soul was torn with agoutes of remorse, and that he had no love to give to her in return for a love which was ready to do and dare all for him. Yet she bravely addressed herself to the task of soothing and pleasing and claiming the man whom she had taken "for better or worse."

That all in world exclused, 'What magnaminist'

That all in world exclused, 'What magnaminist'

O' his he had sory that Hyrno wer published; but be believed that the same transparent at one time a Speuth romance, in which the same story is related in the same transparent manner; but this he was olessated from Princi specialition to bublishing what they called his domestic posms—that is point beating more or less relation to this subject.

December 1 by the subject of the story of the story of the story

Whit any degree of initianes, was made familiar with his side of the story. Moore's blography

18, from first to last, in its representations,

18, from first to last, in its representations

18, from first to last, in its representations

18, from first to last, in its representations

28, from the story of the story of the story of the story

29, from first to last, in its representations

20, from the story of the story of the story

20, from the story of the story

20, from the story of the story

21, from first to last, in the representations

22, from the story of the story

23, from first to last, in the representations

24, from the story of the story

24, from the story of the story

25, from first to last, in the representations

26, from the story of the story

26, from the story of the story

27, from the story of the story

28, from first the story

28, from first the story

28, from first the story

29, from first the story

29, from first the story

20, from

in incest.
In the drama of "Cain," Adah, the sister and the wife of Cain, thus addresses blus:

"Cain! walk not with this spirit,
Bear with what we have borne, and love me-

Lucifer. More than thy mother and thy sire?

Adah. 1 do. 1sthat a sin too?

Lucifer. ne day will be in your children.
Adah. Must not my daughter love her brother Enochl Lucifer. Not us thou loves Cain.
Adah.

Shall they not love and bring forth things that love Out of their love? have they not drawn their milk Out of this bosom? was not be their father, Born of the same sole worst, in the same hour With me? did we not love each other? and in multiplying our being multiply Things which will love each other as we love Them?—And as I love thee, my Cain! go not

Forth with this spirit, he is not of ours.

Lucifer. The sin I speak of is not of my making, And cannot be a sin in you—whate'er it seems in those who will replace ye in Mortality.

Adah. What is the sin which is not Lady Byron, though slight and almost lnfar Lady byron, thouse sight and almost inten-tiae in her bodily presence, bad the soul not only of an angelle woman, but of a strong, reasoning man. It was the writer's lot to know her at a period when she formed the personal acquant-ance of many of the very first minds of England; but among all with whom this experience brough but among all with whom this experience brought her in connection there was none who impressed her so strongly as Lady Byron. There was an almost supernatural power of divination, a grusp of the very highest and most comprehensive things, that made ber lightest opinions singularly impressive. No doubt this result was wrought out in a great degree from the anguish and conflict of these two years, when, with no one to help or counsel her but Almighty God, she wrestled and stuggled with flends of darkness for the redemption of her husband's soul.

She followed him through all his sophistical reasonings with a keener reason. She besought and implored, lu the name of his better nature, and by all the things that he was capable of being and doing; and she had just power enough to convolve and shade and agonize, but not power enough to subdue.

release him, and they should remain only friends.

Overcome with the conflict of his feelings, Lord Byron fainted away. Miss Milbanke was convinced that his heart must be de-ply involved in an attachment with reference to which he showed such strength of emotion, and she spoke no more of the dissolution of the engagement.

There is no reason to doubt that Byron was, as he relates in his Dream, profoundly agonized and agitated wheat he stood before God's altar, with the trustinz young creature whom he was leading to a fate so awfully tragic; yet it was not the memory of Mary Chaworth, but another gullty and more damning memory that overshadowed that hour.

The moment the carriage doors were shut upon the bridegroom and the bride, the paioxysm of remorse and despair—unrepentant remorse and angry despair—broke forth upon her gentle head.

"You might have saved me from this, madam! You had all in rour own power when I offered!"

It was when the state of affairs between herself and her husbands seemed darkest and most hope-less that the only child of this union was born. Lord Byron's treatment of his wife during the sentitive priod that period that pour, own have was a charter of the birth of this child, and during her confinement, was marked by paroxysms of unmanity brutality, for which the only of the birth of this wife during the sentitive priod that period, and during her confinement, was marked by paroxysms of unmanity hu the birth, and during her confinement, was marked by paroxysms of unmanity hu the birth, and during her confinement, was marked by paroxysms of unmanity. Moore sheds a significant light on this period, by telling us that about this the bridge, the paroxysms of unmanity. Moore sheds a significant light on this period, by telling us that about this the bridge, the paroxysms of unmanity. Moore sheds a significant light on this period, by telling us that about this the bridge, the paroxysms of unmanity. Moore sheds a significant light on this period, by telling us that about this the himport of th

"You might have saved me from this, madam!
You had all in your own power when I offered myself to you first. Then you might have made me what you pleased; but now you will find that you have married a devil!"

filend, true to him with a truth which he himself could not shake.

In the verses addressed to his daughter, Lord
By 100 speaks of her as
"The child of love, though born in hitterness, and nurtured in convuision."

lished, is an account of the termination of this worlding journey, which brought them to one of Lady Byron's ancestral country seats, where they and told her that her mother was dead. It was an atter faisehood, but it was only one of the many nameless infuries and crueities by which Miss Martineau says:

"At the altar she did not know that she was a sacrifice; but before sunset of that winter day she knew it. If a judgment may be formed from her face and at itude of despair when she alighted from the carriage on the afternoon of her marriage day. It was not the traces of tears that winter day she steed all the same that a soon as she was allot travel she have her about hin; and, when her child was only five weeks old, he carried this inreat of expressed as the proof of the same that a soon as she was alone travel she have her about hin; and, when her child was only five weeks old, he carried this inreat of expressed as the proof of the same that a soon as she was alone to ravel she was informed by him. In anote, that as soon as she was alone travel she her confinement. She was lifetimed by him. In anote, that as soon as she was alone travel she her expressed his batted of her. A short time after her confinement, she was a soon as she was alone to travel she her expressed his batted of her. A short time after her confinement, she was a soon as she was alone travel she was informed by him. In anote, that as soon as she was alone travel she was the steep she her about him; and, when her child was only not the steep she was alone to the proof of the many nameless informed by him. In anote, that as soon as she was alone travel she was the steep she her about him; and, when her child was only not she was alone to the proof of the many nameles.

only five weeks did, ne carried this threat of expulsion into effect.

THE SEPARATION.

Here we will insert briefly Lady Byron's own account—the only one she ever gave to the public—of this separation. The circumstances under which this brief story was written are affecting. Lord Byron was dead. The whole account between him and her was closed forever in this world. Moore's "Life" had been prepared, containing simply and welely Lord Byron's own version of their story. Moore sent this version to Lady Byron, and requested to know if she had any remarks to make uoon it. In reply she sent a brief statement to him—the first and only one that had ever come from her during all the years of separation, and which appears to have mainly for its object the exculpation of her father and mother from the charge make by the poet of being the instigators of the separation.

In this letter she says, with regard to their separation:

"The facts are: I left Lordon for Michaeles."

"The facts are: I left London for Kirby Mallory, the residence of my father and mother, on the 15th of January, 1816. Lord Byron had signified to me in writing, January 6th, his absolute desire that I should leave London on the earliest day that I could conveniently fix. It was not safe for me to undertake the fatigue of a journey sooner than the 15th. Previously 10 my departure it had been strongly impressed upon my mind that Lord Byron was under the influence of insunity. This opinion was derived, in a great measure, from the communications made me by his nearest relatives and personal attendant, who had more opportunity than myself for observing him during the latter part of my stay in town. It was even represented to me that he was in danger of destroying himself.

"With the concurrence of his family, I had consulted Dr. Bailile as a friend, January 8th, respect-"The facts are: I left London for Kirby Mal-observing him diring the latter part of my stay in town. It was even represented to me that he was in danger of destroying himself.

"With the concurrence of his family, I had consulted Dr. Balille as a friend, January 8th, respecting the supposed malady. On acquanting him with the state of the case, and with Lord Byron's desire that I should leave London, Dr. Balille thought that my absence might be advisable, assuming the fact of mental derangement, for Dr. Balllie, not having had access to Lord Byron, could not pronounce a positive opinion on that point. He enjoined that, in correspondence with Lord Byron, I should avoid ait but light and soothing topics. Under these impressions Heft London, determined to follow the advice given by Dr. Baillie. Whatever might have been the conduct of Lord Byron toward me from the time of my marriage, yet, supposing him to be in a state of mental alienation, it was not for me, nor for any person of common humanity, to manifest at that moment a sense of injury."

Nothing more than this letter from Lady Byron is necessary to substantiate the fact that she did not leave her husband, but was driven from him—driven from him that he might give himself up to the guilty infatuation that was consuming him, without belay tortured by her implering face and by the silent power of her presence and her prayers.

For a long time before this she had seen little her prayers.

For a long time before this she had seen little of him. On the day of her departure she passed by the door of his room and stopped to caress his favorite spaniel, which was lying there; and she confessed to a friead the weakness of feeling a willingness to be something as humble as that poor little creature, might she only be allowed to remain and watch over him. She went into his room where he and the partner of his sins were stiting together, and said, "Byron, I come losay good-by," offering at the same time her hand.

hand.
Lord Byron put his hands behind him, retreated to the mantel-pice, and, looking round on the two that stood there with a sarcastic smile, said; "When shall we three meet again?" Lady Byron answered, "In heaven, I trust;" and these were her last words to him on earth. Now, if the reader wishes to understand the real talents of Lord Byron for deception and dissimulation, let him read, with this story in his mind, the "Farewell," which he addressed to Lady Byron through the printer:

"Fare thee well, and if forever, Still forever fare thee well, Even though unforgiving, never 'Gainst thee stall my heart rebel.

"Would that breast were bared before thee,

"Would that breast were bared before thee, Where thy head so oft hath lain, While that placid sleep came o'er thee Thou canst never know again.

"Though many faults defaced me, Could no other arm be found Thau the one which once embraced me To inflict a cureless wound?"

The reaction of society against him at the time of the separation from his wife was something which he had not expected, and for which, it appears, he was entirely unprepared. It broke up the guilty intrigue, and drove him from England. He had not courage to meet and endure it. The world, to be sure, was very far from suspecting what the truth was, but the tide was setting grainst bim with such vehemence as to make him tremble every hour lest the whole should be known; and henceforth it became a warfare of desperation to make his story good, no matter at whose expeuse.

He had tact enough to perceive at first that the assumption of the pathetic and the maximaninous, and general commission of faults, accompanied to her. Lady Byron was in such a state of health that the assumption of the pathetic and the time with the currency.

Under these circumstances, some of Lady Byron's whole life had been passed in the world of right to allow wither she did right to allow there were a such as the currency.

Under these victumstances, some of Lady Byron's whole life had been passed in the world of the first that the assumption of the pathetic and the maximaninous, and penceforth it became a warfare of desperation to make his story good, no matter at whose expeuse.

He had tact enough to perceive at first that the assumption of the pathetic and the maximaninous, and general commission of faults, accompanied to her. Lady Byron was in such as tate to her these to dive and with open expections which cover thoughtful person finds merchant life.

Lithat line there was a cheap edition of Byron's weeks in contemplation, intended to bring which the runtile world in those duries at the time to live. She was engued in those duries at diverse was one great means of the thrope, dwelling with impenitent remorse on the memory of an incestnous passion which has been the destruction of his sister for this life and the life to come; but which, to the very last gasp, he despairingly refuses to repent of, even while he sees the tiends of darkness ristog to take possession of his despairing soul. That Byron knew his own gut t well, and judged himself severely, may be gathered from passages in this poem, which are as powerful as human language can be made.

made.

LADY BYRON'S GOODNESS.

The world can easily see, in Moore's biography, what, after the, was the course of Lord Byron's life—bow he went from shame to shame, and dishonor to dishonor, and used the fortune which his wife brought him, in the manner described in those private letters which his biographer was left to print. Moore, indeed, says Byton had made the re-olution not to touch his lady's fortune, but adds that it required more self-command than he possessed to carry out so honorable a purpose.

a purpose.

Lady Byron made but one condition with him. Lady Byron made but one consistion with nim. She bad itim in her power, and she exacted that the unhappy partner of his sins should not follow him out of England, and that the rulnous intrigue should be given up. Her Inflexibility on this point kept up that enmity which was constantly expressing itself in some publication or other, and which drew her and her private relations with him before the public.

The story of what Lady Byron did with the portion of her forune which was reserved to her is obscenity, and the insults with which he strove to make her ridiculous in the world, fell at her pitying feet unheeded.

When he broke away from all this unworthy life to devote himself to a manly enterprise for the redemption of Greece, she thought she saw the beginning of an answer to her prayers. Even although one of his latest acts concerning her was to repeat to Lady Blessington the faired accusation which made Lady Byron the author of all his errors, she still had hopes, from the one step taken in the right direction.

In the midst of these hopes came the news of his sudden death. On his death bed it is well known that he called his condential English servant to him and sald to him: "Go to my sister—tell her—go to Lady Byron—you will see her, and say—" followed to a manufacture of the condential see her, and HER HQPES FOR HER HUSBAND.

tell her—go to Lady Byron—you will see her, and say—"

Here followed twenty minutes of indistinct mutterings, in which the names of his wife, daughter and sister frequently occurred. He then said, "now I have told you arl."

"My Lord," replied Fletcher, "I have not understood a word your Lordship has been saying."

"Not understand me!" exclaimed Lord Byron with a look of the utmost distress, "what a pityl then it is too late—all is over!" He afterwards, says Moore, tried to utter a few words, of which none were intelligible except "my sister—my child."

When Fletcher returned to London, Lady By-child."

When Fletcher returned to London, Lady Byron sent for him, and walked the room in conrulsive struggles to repress her tears and sobs, while she over and over again strove to elicit something from him which should enlighten her upon what that last message had been, but in vain—the gates of eternity were shut in her face, and not a word had passed to tell her if he had repented.
For all that, Lady Byton never doubted his sulFor all that, Lady Byton never doubted his sulyation. Ever before her, during the few remaining years of her widowhood, was the image of her husband, purified and ennobled, with the shadows of earth forever dissipated, the stains of sin forever removed—"the angel in him," as she expressed it, "made perfect according to its divine ideal."

she expressed it, "made perfect according to its divine ideal."

Never has more divine strength of faith and love existed in woman. Out of the depths of her own loving and mereful nature, she gained such views of the Divine love and mercy as made all hopes po-sible. There was no soul of whose future Lady Byron despaired. Such was her houndless faith in the redeeming power of love. After Byron's death, the life of this deficate creature—so frail in body that she seemed always hovering on the brink of the eternal world, yet so strong in spirit and so unceasing in her various ministries of mercy—was a miracle of mingled weakness and strength.

To talk with her seemed to the writer of this sketch the nearest possible approach to talking

To talk with her seemed to the writer of this sketch the nearest possible approach to talking with one of the spirits of the just made perfect. She was centle, artiess, approachable as a little child, with ready, out-flowing sympathy for the cares and sorrows and interests of all who approached her, with a native and gentle playfulness that adorned without hiding the breath and strength of her mind, and, above all, with a clear, divining, moral discrimination, never mistaking wrong for right in the slightest shade, yet with a mercliquess that made allowance for with a mercliquess that made allowance for with a mercifulness that made allowance for every weakness and pittled every gin.

There was so much or Christ in her that to have seen her seemed to be to have drawn near to heaven. She was one of those few whom ab-sence cannot estrange from friends—whose mete pressure in this world seems always a help to every generous thought, a strength to every cond very generous thought, a strength to every good urpose, a comfort in every sorrow. Living so near the conflues of the spiritual vorld, she seemed already to see into it. Hence world, she seemed already to see into it. Hence the words of comfort which she addressed to a friend who had lost a son:

"Dear friend, remember as long as our loved ones are in God's world, they are not in our."

It has been thought by some filends who have read the proof sheets of the foregoing, that the author should state more specifically her authority for these statements.

The circumstances which led the writer to England at a certain time originated a friendship and correspondence with Lady Byron, which was always regarded as one of the greatest acquisitions of that visit.

HER INTERVIEW WITH MES. STOWE. On the occasion of a second visit to England, in 1856, the writer received a note from Lady Byron indicating that she wished to have some private, confidential conversation upon important subjects, and inviting her for that purpose to spend a day with her at her country seat near London.

absolute truth, no matter at what expense to her own feelings.

So it is the very drees of all this bitter business, that there was ever a better, or even a brighter, a kinder, or more anniable, agreeable being than Lady flyron. I never had, nor can have, any reprosch to make her wbile with me. Where there is blame, it belongs to myself."

In leaving England, Lord Byron first went to Switzerland, where he conceived and in part wrote out the tragedy of "Manfred," Moore speaks of his domestic misfortunes, and the suffering which he underwent at this time, as having an influence in stimulating his genius, so that he was enabled to write with a greater power.

Anybody who reads the tragedy of "Manfred," with this story in bis mind, will see that it is true. The hero is represented as a gloomy misanthopy, dwelling with impenitent remorse on the memory of an incestious passion which has been of the reality of the spiritual world which seemed to compass Lady Byron during the last part of her life, and which made her words and actions seem more like those of a blessed being detached from earth than of an ordinary mortal. All her modes of looking at things, all her motives of action, all her involuntary exhibitions of emotion, were so high above any common level, and so entirely regulated by the most unworldly causes, that it would seem difficult to make the ordinary world understand exactly bow the thing seemed to lie before her miled. What impressed the writer more strongly than anything else, was Lady Byron's perfect conviction that her husband was now a redeemed spirit that he looked back with pain and shame and regret on all that was unworthy in his past life; and that, if he coffid speak or act in the case, he would destre to prevent the further circulation of base falseboods, and of seductive poetry, which had been made the vebicle of moroid and unworthy lassions.

assions.

Lady Byron's experience had led her to apply

lassions.

Lady Byron's experience had led her to apply the powers of ner strong philosophical mind to the study of mental pathology, and she had become satisfied that the solution of the painful problem which first occurred to her as a young wife was, after all, the true one—namely, that Lord Byron had been one of those unfortunitely constituted persons in whom the balance of nature is so critically hung that it is always in danger of dipping towards Insanity, and that in certain periods of his life he was so far under the influence of mental disorder as not to be fully responsible for his actions. She went over, with a brief and clear analysis, the history of his whole life, as she had thought it out during the lonely musings of her widowhood. She dwelt on the ancestral causes which gave him a nature of exceptional and dangerous susceptibility. She went through the mismanazements of his childhood, the history of his school days, the influence of the ordinary school course of classical teading on such a mind as his. She sketched boioly and clearly the internal life of the young men of the time as she with her purer eyes had looked through it, and showed how habits, which with less susceptible fiber and coarser strength of nature were tolerable for his companions, were deadly to him, ushinging his nervous system, and intensifying the dangers of ancestral proclivities. Lady Byron expressed the feeling, too, that the Calvanistic theology, as heard in Scotland, had proved in his case, as it often does in certain minds, a subtle poison. He never could either disbelieve or become reconciled to it, and the sore problems it proposes embittered his spirit against Christianity.

"The worst of it is, I do believe," he would often There two vers, in which Lady Prove with all the control of the control straighted to brite her historid box to with the control of the contr

and blead her cause. She wrote to Lady Byron that while this act of justice did seem to be called for, and to be in some respects most desirable, yet, as it would novive so much that was painful to her, the writer considered that Lady Byron would be enlirely justifiable in leaving the truth to be disclosed after her death, and recommended that all the facts necessary should be put in the hands of some person to be so published.

recommended that all the facts necessary should be put in the hands of some person to be so puells bed.

Years passed on, Lady Byron lingered four years after this interview, to the worder of her physicians and all her friends.

After Lady Byron's death the writer looked anxiously, hoping to see a memoir of the person whom she considered the most remarkable woman that England had produced in the century. No such memoir has appeared on the part of her friends; and the mistress of Lord Byron has the ear of the public, and is sowing far and wide unworthy slanders, which are eagerly gathered up and read by an indiscriminating community. There may be family reasons in England which prevent Lady Byron's friends from speaking; but Lady Byron has an American name and an American existence, and reverence for pure womanhood is, we think, a national characteristic of the American; and, so far as this country is concerned, we feel that the public should have this refutation of the slanders of the Countees Guiccioli's book.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

Meeting Last Night-Report of Health Officer, &c.

A regular meeting of the Board of Health wa eld last evening in the hall over the City Cour President Dr. John E. Crowe in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were approv wl'hout being read.

REPORT OF THE HEALTH OFFICER. The following report from Dr. Alex Penny w ad and ordered to be filed: Hon. Board of Health:

GENTLEMEN: 'he following reports are made by the sanitary inspectors of work done during the past month. I am pleased to report that the mortality for the summer, so far, has been remarkably light. The city dispensaries are now in full operation, and up to the present date over one hundred sick poor have been prescribed for at these institutions. The reports from the city dispensaries will be made at the close of each month:

month:
FIRST DISTRICT—DR. R. A. SHADBURNE Number of Equares inspected.

Market-honses inspected (weekly).

Meat stores inspected.

Slaughter-houses inspected.

Private alleys inspected.

Public alleys inspected.

Alleys disinfected.

Houses disinfected.

Squares disinfected. Squares disinfected. Special visits.....

Patients sent to pest-house. Patients prescribed for at office. Patients prescribed for at dispens'y Patients visited and prescribed for. SECOND DISTRICT—DR. WM. P. WHITE.

Number of squares inspected.

Market-houses inspected.

Meat stores inspected.

Alleys disinfected.

Houses disinfected.

Squares disinfected.

Special visits.

Votices served.

Vaccuations.

Patients sent to Pest-house.

Indigent sick visited.

All public and private alleys inspected. SECOND DISTRICT-DR. WM. P. WHITE.

THIRD DISTRICT-DR. W. T. HUMPHREYS. market houses itspected (twice a Market houses inspected (twice a week).

Meet stores inspected...
Slaughter-houses inspected.
Private alleys inspected.
Private alleys inspected.
Public alleys inspected.
Alleys disinfected.
Alleys disinfected.
Squares disinfected.
Synches served.
Vaccinations.
Patieuts sent to the Pest-house.
Charity patients visited at their homes and prescribed for.
FOURTH DISTRICT—DR. WILEY ROGERS.

Market-houses juspected four time

weekly inspected for weekly inspected.
Meat stores inspected.
Shught r-houses inspected.
Private alleys inspected.
Public alleys inspected.
Alleys disinfected.
Houses disinfected. Squares disinfected. Special visits..... Notices served..... Patlenis sent to pest-hons ndigent sick prescribed for ndigent sick visited.....

In addition to the above, I condemned about bs. bee; in the Sixteenth street market.

Respectfully, ALEX. PENNY, AUGUST 17, 1868.

Health Office Dr. Jenkins delivered to the Board the get adjourned until Tuesday evening, September

The Nashville Railroad Directory. l rom the Courier-Journal.

Your correspondents have shown various facts about the Directory which excite comment in every circle. If it is true that the President of the Nashville road is allied with Eastern capitalists in the Mississippi Central road, no good citizen of Louisville can consistently advocate his reelection. It is correctin Mr. Newcomband others of Louisville can consistently advocate his reelection. It scorrectin Mr. Newcomband others to develop Paducah and to reap a rich harvest from the investment which secures over the Paducan bridge a through toute to Chicago, and a through route, via Vincennes, to New York and Eastern cities. Both of these objects are undoubtedly under way, and will as certainly be accomplished in a short space of time. Mr. Newcomb has been a successful merchant. He has large amounts to invest, and no one can assume the right to indicate where, as a private citizen, he shall focate his interests. But when we are ininformed that his investments are made in a direction which must militate assume the professes to look after, the anomaly of his position is self-evident even to the weakest comprehession. mension.

Many stockholders will require elucidation o

again.
It has been said that this road is becoming nt has been said that this road is decoming powerful; and that it may be dangerous in improper hands. The Peunsylvania Central railroad now netoriously centrols Pennsylvania and the legislation of that State. Last winter by its induence Mr. Scott was elected United States Senator. When the Nashville road falls into Iminduence Mr. Scott was elected United States Senator. When the Nashville road falls into improper hands, the same results upon a smaller scale may be attempted here, not only in city hut in State legislation. It is incumbent, therefore, upon us, to watch carefully the strides which an overgrown corporation may make towards the consolidation of power. During Mr. Guthris's Metime there was a careful refraining from any interference with politics. Under Mr. Newcomb's regime, if popular rumor can be believed, a different policy has been pursued. The statement has been freely made, uncontradicted as yet, that Mr. Newcomb at the late municipal election gave instructions to his foreman to dismiss such employes as refused to vote for a certain candidate. Now this, if true, would be a paramount objection to the selection of Mr. Newcomb. The city and the stockholders never placed power in his hands to be used for the advancement of any political friend. And if he had only introduced his friend to his employes and requested them as a favor to support him it would have been in principle an equal abuse of the trust confided to the President. We will have a nice clique in Louisville if the game is once inaugurated of mutual interference.

If Mr. Newcomb did interfere, as has been alleged, in the municipal election in any way, he is until for the position.

The attempt to explain the transaction of Mr. Newcomb in the Mississimpl Central retirned her

The attempt to explain the transactions of Mr. Newcomb in the Mississippi Central railroad has not met the case in point at all. The courteous communication of "Stockholder" shows that its writer believes in the good faith of the President toward bis own corporation as well as toward Louisville. If the documents promised are forth-coming in a day or two your correspondent will respond to "Stockholder" in such a manner that he will coubless abandon any further defense of a rotten cause.

LQUISVILLE No. 4.

FREIGHT.

THE LOUISVILLE, CINCINNATI

Lexington Railroads

ARE now fully prepared to transport freight to and from COVINGTON and CINCINNATI, and contract rates to all points North and East via Cincinnati.

For through rates and further information, apply to

Contracting Agent, Louisville, E. T. WILSON, Gen'i Freight Ag't.

SAM'L GILL, Supt.

aug 10t

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

SENIOR INFORESE

A LE-Madison, Wheeling and other Ales, as L. Weber's, No. 23 Fourth street.

CROMEY, WILLIAM—Dealer in Paper as Gunpowder, 290 south side Main street, between Seventh and Eighth.

OOK & GOODMAN—Importers and dealers Watches, Jewelry, Diamonds, Silver and Plated Ware, Spectacles, Optics, Uccks, &c., 125 Third treet, between Jefferson and Green. RRANK, S. GOSNELL is prepared to de-liver pure Northern Ice to all parts of the city. Office No. 111 Second street.

HARLAN & NEWMAN Attorneys at Louisville, Ky., near Willard Hotel. HAYS, WILL S.-Dealer in Sheet Music and Musical Instruments. HAYS, ROBERT W.-Attorney at Law, Con street, near Jefferson.

JAMES, THOMAS & CO.—Dealers in Pittebury and other Coal. Office No. 56 Sixth street, be tween Market and Jefferson. MOUNT, W. J., Mannfacturer of Saddles Harness, No. 70 Jefferson st., between and Third.

B. McELFATRICK, Architect, No. Main street, below Fourth, Louisvil STANCLIFF & ANDREWARTHA-And tects, No. 9 Hamilton Building, corner Six and Main.

RESTAURANTS.

International

RESTAURANT Jefferson st., near Third. FISH C. HENRY, Prop's

are served in the best style and at all bours.

Regular meals 50 cents each.

my29 ST. CHARLES

HOTEL AND RESTAURANT. On European Plan, S. E. corner Seventh and Main streets,

LOUISVILLE, KY. PHIL. LOTICH, - - - Proprietor

HOTELS. LOUISVILLE HOTEL,

Corner Sixth and Main streets, Louisville, Ky M. KEAN & CO., Propr's. THE above hotel has just been entirely renovated and refurnished, and is, by reason of its central location, particularly desirable for the business and traveling pulls. It will be kept on strictly first-class principles.

WILLARD HOTEL, Louisville, Kv.

THE undersigned proprietors of this hote having built A Splendid Addition Thereto, which largely increases its capacity and having refitted and furnished it throughout, without regard to expense, are now prepared to entertain their guests in a style equal to any hotel in the country.

Thanking the public for the generous patronage extended to it in years past, they hope to merit the continuance of public tayor.

PIANOS---SHEET MUSIC REMOVAL.

AS I shall remove about the first of June to my new store, NO. 18 MAIN STREET, BET. THIRD AND FOURTH, I will, until that time, sell my present stock of Pianos, Organs, &c., at Greatly Reduced Prices.

My present stores are for rent.
LOUIS TRIPP,
my; tf Nos. 92 and 94 Jefferson st. PIANOS.

HINZEN & ROSEN, Manufacturers of GRAND UPRIGHT AND SQUARE PIANO FORTES Wareroom and Factory-Market street, bet. Sixth and Seventh.

An assortment of good second-hand Planos for sale or rent very cheap and let the rent of new sale or rent very cheap and let the rent of new sale or rent very cheap and let the rent of new sale was the content of the Planca apply to the purchase

MEDICAL. BERG'S UNIVERSAL RUSSIAN Healing Salve

T RELIEVES PAIN! Those who have Wounds, Bruises, Cnts. Sores, Felons, Scratches, Mosquito Intes, Frost Bitten Joints, Sore Lips, Children's Scorbuic Complaints on Head and Face are speedily cured. It has proved of great advantage to ladies, and is peculiarly adapted for Gathered Breasts, Sore Legs, &c., through confinement and other causes.

Golden Remedies.

Ask for no other, take no other, and you will save time, health and money.

21.000 REWARD for any case of disease inany stage which they fail to cure.

Dr. RICHAL'S GOLDEN BALSAM NO. 1 cures Ulcers, Ulcerated Sore Throat and Mouth, Sore Eyes, Cutaneous or Skin Eruptions, Copper Colored Blotches, Soreness of the Scalp, Scrofula, &c.; is the greatest Renovator. Alterative and Blood Purifier known; removes mil diseases from the system, and leaves the blood pure and healthy.

Dr. RicHAL'S GOLDEN BALSAM NO. 2 cures Mercurial Affections, Rheumatism in all its forms, whether from mercury or other causes; gives immediate relief in all cases. No dieticates proving the miraculous cures effected by these Kemedies. Price of either No. 1 or No. 25 to per bottle, or two bottles for $00.

Dr. RicHAL'S GOLDEN ANTIDOTE, a safe, speedy, pleasant and radical cure for all Urinary Derangements, accompanied with util direction. Price, 35 00 per bottle.

Dr. RicHAL'S GOLDEN ELIXIR D'AMOUR, a radical cure for Nervous or General Debility, in old or young; imparting energy with wonderful effect. Price, 500 per bottle or two bottles for $9.00.

On receipt of price, these Remedies will be shipped to any place. Prompt attention paid to all correspondents. None gennine without he name of "Dr. RiCHAL'S GOLDEN (EDEN EM-EDIES, D B. RICHARDS, sole proprietor," blown in glass of bottles.

Dit. D. B. RICHARDS,

of the hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. roulars

WASHINGTON FOUNDERY. JOHN B. DAVIES, MANUFACTURER OF MARINE, LAND and PORTABLE

STEAM ENGINES, Grist and Saw Mill Machinery, TOBACCO, COTTON AND HAT PRESSES AND SCRAWS. Distillieries and Breweries,

Boiler, Sheet Iron and Copper Work of all descriptions, Wrought Iron Pipe and Steam Fittings, Steam and Water Gauges, Whistles, &c. CORNER MAIN AND NINTH STS., myZdtf

ent Amusements, $1 per square for each inartion.

"Wants," "For Reite," "For Sales," etc., 25 cents or each insertion of five lines.

"Town Topics," 30 cents per line; Locals, in black letter, 25 cents per line, and Cl 7 items 16 cents per line for each insertion.

Marriage and Ireal Notices, 50 cents each.
All bills due on first insertion of advertisement.
All advertisements, except for established business houses, with whom we have running accounts, must be paid or in advance.

LOUISVILLE.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1869.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS. ----NEW YORK.

SUIT AGAINST GEN. JOHN A. DIX FOR FALSE IMPRISONMENT.

John Mitchell wants $25,000 Damages.

Arrival of Admiral Hoff at Quarantine.

Yellow Fever Raging at Key West.

New York, August 18. General John A. Dix was arrested yes-terday at the suit of John Mitchell, the Irish patriot, who charges him with illegal imprisonment. Mitchell, it will be remembered, was arrested in this city, and imprisoned at Fortress Monroe, by General Dix, in the summer of 1-65, and upon The steamer The Queen from Liverpool

The Turners who represented New York at Chicago were enthusiastically received by their brethren last night.

Admiral Hoff's flagship, Albany, is, detained at lower quarantine, assistant en-gineer Steele having died of yellow fever on the voyage from Key West. Her offi-cers report great mortality at Key West. At Trenton yesterday the transactions of the National Educational Convention were confined to the business of American Normal School Associations. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Joseph II. Alden. of Albany, Prof. Phelps, of Minnesota, Prof. Ogden, of Nashville, and others Resolutions looking to uniformity of studies in all the States and connecting of provisional degrees, were submitted

THE PRIZE FIGHT.

Ailen Whips Gallagher in Eleven Rounds,

But is Cheated of his Victory by the St. Louis Scoundreis.

Unfairness of the Fancy again Demonstrated.

Special to the Cincinnatt Gazette.

ST. Louis, August 17. Charley Gallagher, at Foster's island, for the nature of its contents. of conversation to-day among all classes.

fight governed this, and Allen has again ence-you aim to be the next President cials to different cities, were not only in-complete but inaccurate. They said that nine rounds were fought, and the fight affair, and reveal the utterly base conduct of Allen's opponents.

The first three rounds were in Gallagher's favor, he getting first blood and on your peculiar fitness for his office.
first knock down, besides giving Allen "Your excellent tool, Mr. Tullock, be several severe blows, but from that time to the finish, the fight was Allen's In the seventh round, especially. Galla-gher was terribly handled, receiving a smashing blow in the pit of the stomach which nearly prostrated him. The 8th and 9th rounds were also desperately fought, but were decidedly in favor of Allen. At the 10th round Gallagher was very weak, and easily kuocked down. the 11th he was still weaker, and too ex-hausted to defend himself, and was sent to grass almost without an effort. At this point Tom Kelly, one of Gallagher's seconds, threw np the sponge. Jim Coyne, one of Allen's seconds, then crossed over to Kelly, and asked "Tom, are you whipped?" and Kelly replied though he saw the sponge go up he could not tell who threw it. He, therefore, declared the battle a draw.

Allen and his seconds then left the ring and went toward the boat.

When Kelly was appealed to he refused to acknowledge that he threw the sponge that the fight was Allen's.

The referee also defends his action on The referee also defends his action on head, by inducing him to join you in dethe ground that Allen left the ring before nunciation of the conservative Republithe decision was given. Allen claims that the throwing up of the sponge determined the battle in his favor, and he had "But, sir, your purpose is easily disa right under the rules to leave. There was another reason why Allen might defor a parting shape, when Gallagher Under these circumstances Allen might fought and well won victory. of the referee, in the face of the assers results of your unapproachable folly the ily is descended.

tions of hundreds of witnesses to the sponge being thrown up, is denounced by everybody, except Gallagher's friends, und is looked upon as another evidence of the determined rascality of men having money upon a fight.

Imposition on these States of your iron-clad oath, and the alienation is complete, landing them all in the outstretched arms of Democracy.

But the consequence of your folly does not end here. Ohio and Pennsylvania.

a Senator. Much Talk, but no Bloodshed.

ansient advertisements must be paid for in They Both Apologize and Make Friends.

> WILMINGTON, August 17. For a week past a personal difficulty has een pending between Major Engelhard ditor of the Journal, and Gen. Abbott, little brief authority? Then, sir, how do hited States Senator, which grew out of an editorial in the Post, of the 8th inst , which the editors of the Journal were denounced as public liars, on account of alleged injustice done to Abbott in reports of his speeches. No collision or corresponding the speeches of his speeches. ondence having occurred in the meanthat he (Abbott) and not the editor of the poses of oppression, without the warrant l'ost, was the author of the offensive arti- of conscience or law, it may be that you ele, and that he was personally responsible

On Wednesday and Thursday there were unmistakable evidence that Engelbard would attack Abbott on sight, but the vigilance of the authorities prevented t. On Thersday Abbott was arrested and blaced under bonds to keep the peace Engelbard successfully avoided arrest Saturday morning at 1 o'clock, when he was surprised at a private house y the sheriff and posse and placed under

On Sunday morning Engelhard, with three friends, proceeded to South Caroli-na, and addressed a communication to Abbott, of which the following is au ex

You must now make a full retraction of the contents of that article, and apologize for publishing it, or give me satisfaction, to which I am entitled in accordance with the code of honor."

On Manday Mr. Abbott, through some friends, replied in a communication, o which the following is an extract: "By authority of General Abbott, and in his name, we retract, in ful!, the article in the this fact he brings suit for twenty-five thousand dollars damages. General Dix gave security in twenty thousand dollars written and published. The amende was written and published. accepted by the friends acting for Major ngelhard, in a written communication which they stated that in nothing that had appeared in that journal was any assault on the private character of General Abbott intended, and expressing regret that it had been so construed

WASHINGTON.

Judge Dent on the War Path.

His Letter in Full---He Gives Boutwell a Fiece of his Mind.

He Don't Think Boutwell Constitutes the State.

Special to the Cinclinate Commercial.

WASHINGTON, August 17. Judge Lewis Den!, brother-in-law of the President, and an applicant for gubnernatorial konors in Mississippi, is on the war path. The Judge says he represents the conservative Republican party, of which his brother-in-law, President Grant, is the head center. He blames Boutwell for mal and will have the skin stuffed. Grant's defection in the Tarbell conversa tion, and has addressed that gentleman the following highly interesting and spicy

Hon. George Boutwell, Secretary of the Treasury: "Sir-I shall make little apology for ask-The prize fight between Tom Allen and ing your attention to my letter, and less some twenty miles down the river-the the first to deuy the political orthodoxy of same place where Allen and McCoole my friends and myself; and by all the fought—has been the all absorbing topic rules of the forum 1 am entitled to a de fense. Again, you hold an office of the It was not only given out, but believed, that it would be a square stand-up and fair fight, and everybody hoped that the best humblest citizen thereof. But in some reman would be allowed to win, but the spects we are alike; for insiance, we are same scoundrelism that ruled the McCoole both aspirants for place, with this differbeen most outrageously cheated. with every assurance of success, except in the dispatches which were telegraphed the opinion of the people, while I seek as battleground, and sent as spe- humbler place, with my hopes in disastronfuture, we both stand adverse to the judg-ended in Allen's favor. More reliable ment of the country.

accounts, brought up by the Louisville this evening, give a different version of the are unscrupulous as to the means of your ambition you are unscrupulous as to the means of your ambition. success. Your organ, the New York Sun n the same breath ridicules the capacity of your master, and dwells with emphasi

ame so reekless in the manipulation of your department in the interest of your ambition, and so defiant of the wishes of the President and the country that to save robber had placed, ready for earrying off, yourself from an explosion of popular intransfer him to another sphere of scan-dalous activity, where his talents might he exerted with appeal of the rich and costly furniture in the house

"Virginia, Tennessee, Mississippi and Texas, not to mention anything so humble as myself, were obstructions in the way of rour success, because, through President Grant's intervention in excluding the proscriptive elauses from their organic laws, these States are brought into the Union armly welded to his support. Now, this is in direct conflict with your systematized plans; for what General Grant gets in the A dispute then arose as to who threw up next election, clearly Mr. Boutwell will the sponge, the referee declaring that alnot get; and therefore you have denounced the conservative Republicans who are for Grant, that you may obtain the prosering tive Republicans, who are for Boutwell and by some strange, dexterous manage ment, and occult political strategy, you up, but while going to the boat he is said have so worked upon the confidence of the to have told Dad Ryan, Alleu's umpire, President as to eause him to flourish the elub with which you intend to break

"But, sir, your purpose is easily dis-cerned, and has a twofold object, namely, to destroy the National Republican party sire to get away as speedily as possible. In the South, and then to reconstruct Not only had he been hit with a club durfrom its shattered fragments a Boutwell in the South, and then to reconstruct ing the fight, but after the sponge had been party, with no Richmond in the field to thrown up he went to Gallagher's corner strike for your crown. But if you cannot succeed in this scheme of desperate enter-were used as a meaus to prevent sissippi and Texas, will repeatyour calamom reaping the benefit of a bravely-ity, and again overwhelm you with dishim from reaping the benefit of a bravely-him from reaping the benefit of a bravely-fought and well won victory. The decis-comfiture and defeat. Superadd to these perilous voyage, it is said, the Collett fam determined rascality of men having money up upon a fight.

Allen says he will fight but once more, viz: with McCoole, near Cincinnati, and will then withdraw from the ring, believing he can not obtain justice at the hands of his opponents.

NORTH CAROLINA.

But the consequence of your folly does not end here. Ohio and Pennsylvania, and others, will follow, decide their political status in October, and the North will echo back the condemnation of the South, and peal in your ears this fact, that there is still left enough of the incorruptible virtue of the republic to rebuke you for a wanton repression of that most sacred right, the elective franchise.

right, the elective franchise.
"But, sir, this will not deter you from your mad course. You will still persist until every prop that supports our party is stricken away, and the whole grand surstructure tumbles about our ears in peless ruin.

When you were appointed Secretary o he Treasury and unanimously confirmed y a Senate of every shade of political opinion, did you not take an oath to ad minister your office impartially, and for the exclusive objects of its ereation-to collect the revenue and control the finances of the country? Is not that office the property of the nation, and yourself only clothed for a time with a you explain this perversion of its legiti-mate uses and functions into a means and instrument of oppression, and compel the do you call this a great moral idea? But, time, on Truesday evening Abbott address-d a note to Engelhard, in which he stated Mr. Boutwell, though you have thus prosf conscience or law, it may be that you can tell me by what authority you preume to pronounce upon my political or hodoxy. Who constituted you the infal-ble pope of Republicanism? Who gave on authority to hurl the political anathemas of the party? Again, what right have you to commit the administration to your oolicy? Have you to learn yet that you to even up a part of the administration, and not the whole of it? though your friends believe that a monomania has seized your mind on that subject, and that you verily believe yourself the State. "Very respectfully, Lewis Dent."

Seizure of Cigars.

NEW OBLEANS, August 17. Collector Stockdale to-day seized twelve housand eigars, manufactured in Key West, for violation of the internal revenue The boxes were not bonded.

PANTHER IN LEAVENWORTH. He is Killed After a Sharp Fight.

From the Leavenworth Conservative, lith. and a half miles from the city, have missed a large amount of poultry and small young stock and had supposed that the depredators were prairie wolves. All ef-forts to discover the hiding place or nature of the animal have been unavailing until on Friday, as a young man, son of Mr. Burril Atkinson, was out gunning, his dogs eing in advance, started some minual which broke for more thickly wooded timber, with the dogs in full pursuit. After a somewhat prolonged chase, the baying of the dogs announced that they had treed the animal.

Ilasfening up, young Atkinson discovered ered a large animal crouched in the limbs of the tree and glaring fiercely upon the hounds below. Without hesitation Mr. Atkinson raised his gun and fired, wounding the animal so that he fell or jumped from the tree. The dogs immediately ponneed upon him and a terrible combat ensued, in which the dogs were badly while Atkinson reloaded, and having now a tair sight at the monster, fired, and for tunntely killed him. An examination proved him to be a species of the panther family. His body measured about five feet in length, and in hight he stood about three feet in length, and in high the stood about three feet be given. Cauby's constituently killed him. An examination proved him to be a species of the panther family. His body measured about five feet in length, and in high the stood about three feet being have and slip hodied. He

Where this strange visitor came from is a mystery. Nothing of his species has ever been seen or heard of in this country, the memory of the oldest inhabitant unless it may have been that this or another of its race was that seen two years

A Cool Burglar.

Billy Coleman, a New York burglar, as caught in an attempt to rob the house of Postmaster General Creswell, at Elkton, Maryland, last week. He was dis covered, and, in attempting to escape fell to the ground and was stunned and

He had on at the time of his arrest a full suit of Mr. Creswell's clothes, in the pockets of which were found a large numer of keys, pocket-knives, a bottle of the yard where he had fallen. Ou an ed that almost all the wardrobes, bureaus, ests, closets, etc., had been broken open and their contents scattered about. wine closet had received his particular attention, and from the open bottles it was vident he had helped himself freely to champagne and other choice liquors. Further search discovered large pack ages of clothing, belonging to Mr. Cres well: silk dresses, a velvet eloak, wine glasses, an opera glass, and so lalous activity, where his talents might was much injured by having the lock-be exerted with equal effect, and less ef-The silver plate and other costly table ware had been removed from the prem ises, which doubtless proved a great disappointment to the burglar, which was expressed in the following letter, found in he house, written on a sheet of foolscap, in a scrawling hand, addressed to Mr. Creswell by the thief, which we give ver-

"Bill Coleman, New York burglar, spent all day in your house. Your liquors are splendid. I regret to say that it was the poorest place I ever met. Yours truly,

WILLIAM COLEMAN.

"Written when drunk off your fine liq-ors at 10 o'clock at night.' Bill has at present quarters in the old esses his crime, and expresses regret that the furniture has been so badly injured. After being enseoneed in his new quarters e was relieved of five of Mr. Creswell's shirts by the sheriff, the raseal having put them on as the most couvenient mode of transporting such baggage.

At a reunion of two families named Collett and McKay, near Waynesville, last Saturday, one hundred and eighty-five bearing those names were present. Of the Collett family it is related that, more than a hundred years ago a husband, wife and babe set sail from the coast of France prise, you mean to run—a result, from present appearances, much more likely to to find a home in America. The wife, afreasonably have felt that his life was in danger, and to stay longer would lead to zerious results.

The facts seem to be that any pretext that offered would be taken advantage of to defeat Allen, and the dispute about the sponge and the leaving of the ring by

Allen were used as a means to prevent sissiping and Texas, will repeat your calam.

The wife, after a few days at sea, died, and a famine having broken ont on shipboard, an allow are of one biscuit was issued each day to the adults, the children being permitted to starve. But the father shared his food ous political strategy, now active in Miscuit a day until the voyage was ended.

Judge Dent Pitches Into Boutwell.

His Little Game to Defeat Grant's Re-election Exposed.

THE STORY OF RAWLINS' RESIGNATION WITHOUT FOUNDATION,

Action on the Virginia Test Oath Postponed.

BOUTWELL'S GAME. WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 .- Judge Dept, the Conservative candidate for Governor of Mississippi, has wiltten a letter to Secretary Boutwell, charging him with having assumed the power to control the patronage in that and other Sonthern States for the purpose of set the broken limb. At this the little seenring the defeat of Grant for the next Presidency and advancing his own chances for the office. He declares that Boutwell lu- stopped, and looking up at the surgeon tends to destroy the confidence of the Southeru people in Grant, and charges him with being at the bottom of the movement agaiust him iu Mississippi aud Hamiiton in Texas. He says tlat Boutwell's interference in Virgiula and Tennessee large enough, the doctor proceeded until and finally inquires of Boutwell by what authority he pronounces upon his political arthodoxy. He asks: "Who constituted you the infallible pope of Republicanism? Who gave you authority to hurl the political anathemas of the party!" He further charges that Boutwell has acted without the concurrence the Southern people.

Grauville Dodge, Chlef Engmeer of the Union Paelite railroad, had been telegraphed to by who is compelled to resign by his rapidlyfailing health, is without the slightest founda-For some time past, the people living in the vicinity of Bayne Cemetery, about two Buston, but has received uo such dispatch as points forbade any further progress—hold the one above indicated. The health of Section for the fast. Her hellowings were neither retary Rawlins le better thau It has been for several mouths past, and is rapidly improvbetween the President and Secretary Rawilus is of the most Intlmate character, and no War, resulting from their long association and similarity of views on many important questions which have been under cousideration. Secretary Rawlins left here this evening for a visit to his family in Danbury, Connectleut, and will be absent about a week, THE TEST OATH IN VIRGINIA. It is authoritatively announced here that Gen. Cauby will take no action towards con the test oath of members thereof nutil after ministration. It is sald Hoar will reuder an deelare that such an opinion will be sustained by the administration in the face of the fact that the obnoxious test-oath clause was voted down by the people of Virgiula.

A PRESIDENTIAL SUBSTITUTE. The White House having been deserted, and there being no President in Washington, a druuken man to-day claimed possession and declared himself ready and willing to perform the duties of the President of this great republic. He was arrested and carried to the nearest station-house.

FOREIGN.

[BY CABLE TELEGRAPH.] ENGLAND.

THE OXFORD AND HARVARD CREWS. LONDON, Aug. 17 .- The Harvard and Oxford crews are out every day for practice. proform, matches and small wax For the past few days the tide between Putuey andles. A dark lantern was also found and Moutlake has been bad, and the rowing angels in heaven, rejoice! A soul could only be done early in the morning or amination of the house it was discover- late at night. Good judges say the Oxonlaus are faultiess. The Harvard crew is much lmproved, and are rapidly working into the English style. They display great strength, aud their pace against the river tide is rapid. out at the territic pace with which they start? God spoke these beautiful words, because Betting to-day is five to two on the Oxfords; yesterday it was three to oue. PERSONAL.

It is rumored Wm. Stuart, Engish Minister to Bueuos Ayres, will go to Madrid in the same canacity. Chas. Moore, Member of Parliament from Tipperary, is dead.

SPAIN.

THE UNITED STATES AND CUBA. MADRID, Aug. 17.-The Epoca and other etween Spain and the United Stales relative to Cuba. It is said the government desires the restoration of order in Cuba before condections to Cuba before condections and the Cuba before condections and sidering the subject of its cession to the United States.

A CARLIST DEFEAT. A body of Carlists, led by Vicar Alitublas, vere defeated at Abejalena by national troops. The Vicar aud 19 of his men were taken prisoners.

IRELAND.

MUNICIPAL CONGRATULATORY ADDRESS. DCBLIN, Aug. 17.—The Municipal Council have adopted au address to Earl Speucer, Mr. jail, but how long he will remain there is a have adopted an address to Earl Spencer, Mr. matter not easily determined. He con-Gladstone, and Earl Gray, congratulating them and the country ou the passage of the Irish Church blil. The eouservative members of the council abscuted themselves when the vote on the address was takeu.

COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS. Archbishop Cullen has summoned the Roman Catholie bishops to meet in council for the discussion of a public question.

PRUSSIA.

THE GERMAN STATES AND THE ECUMENICAL COUNCIL Berlin, Aug. 17.—It is reported that the North and South German States have agreed to common action with respect to the ecumenical council if the resolutions adopted by that body on the question of the temporal power of the Pope should threaten the peace of Europe.

PRUSSIA'S UNPRECEDENTED DIPLOMACY. VIBENA, August 17.—The whole press dis-opprove the note sent by the Prussian Gov-erument to Baron Buest, and denounce the course of Prussia as unprecedented in diplo-

EDITION.

3 O'CLOCK P.M.

Small Fire. A fire broke out last night about 8 o'clock in a frame bnilding on Portland avenue, below Bridge street, but was extinguished before the arrival of the engines. The house belonged to Mr. Stouth, whose losses are very light.

Joseph Gorman, drunk and disorderly; fined three dollars.

Charles Merkle, shooting with intent to kill at Robt. H. Hays; bond of six hundred dollars to answer.

James Walsh drunk and three dollars imposed. whose losses are very light.

The Golden Gate Lodge No. 147, I. O. G. T., meet this evening at their hall, corner of Eighth and Jefferson streets. This is a new lodge, and increasing in numbers very fast. Let there be a good turnout of all the members, and they will

Fractured Leg.

Yesterday evening a little boy, about six years old, the son of John Dunn, who lives on Chestnut street, between Clay and Shelby, while playing on the wooden steps at the front door, tipped them over, and was thrown so violently to the pavement as to break one of his legs. A doctor was two hundred dollars to answer. brought to his assistance as speedily as set the broken limb. At this, the little fellow bawled lustily, but all at once said, in a very quaint tone of voice: "I while there is no plethors in the money and tised for to-morrow. The purchasing say, doctor, if you'll let my leg alone, I'll market, it is very plentifully supplied with give you a quarter; it hurts me enough funds, and first-class borrowers are act rious issues. now." But as the proffered fee was not

In a Predicament.

A night or two ago, either about midof the party?" He further charges that Boutwell has acted without the concurrence of the President in his recent indorsement of the Southern people.

The war secretaryship.

The dispatch from Des Moines that General The dispatch from Des Moines The dispatch from Des Moines The The dispatch from Des Moines The The Moines The Moines The The Moines The Moi night or in the "wee sma' hours ayout the of the President in his recent indorsement of and jumping disposition, taking it into yards, on Jefferson street, between Eighth the President, tendering him the position of and Ninth, but, being too heavy in flesh Secretary of War, in place of Gen. Rawlins, for the strength of her museles, or not ments of trade. The price for selling is, ing eminigration to the city and State, making proper calculation of hights and however, unchanged, while it is bought at distances in the dim, uncertain moonlight, the counter at from 1-10 discount to par. distances in the dim, uncertain moonlight, the counter at from 1-10 discount to par. she fell astride the fence, and its sharp ing her fast. Her bellowings were neither few, unfrequent nor timidly expressed, lug. He has not the least idea of but the neighborhood was not thus to be tendering his resignation, and no successor aroused. Fortunately for the cow, a to him will be appointed. The relationship comple of doctors happened along, and couple of doctors happened along, and with the assistance of a lever, improvised member of the Cabinet cojoys the confidence out of a rail, they lifted her from her unof the President more than the Secretary of pleasant position, when she walked away without so much aslowing "thank you."

The Good Templars.

This noble and reformatory order is largely on the increase in this city. The lovers of morality may justly be proud of its marked sneeess.

Eureka Lodge, No. 105, met last night vening the Virginia Legislature or exacting at their hall on highth street. There were six additions and many more peti-

ladies and gentlemen composing this Corn.... opicion in accordance with Canby's construc-tion of the law, but many who profess to have lodge is a guarantee that in their hands the views of various members of the Cablact the cause must prosper and become a Barley... power for good not to go nurewarded.

Grand W. C. T., J. J. Hickman, was present, and lent his great assistance in present, and lent his great assistance in Cotton—None here.

FLOUR-Pull; superfine $5.75; XX, $6.50; XXX, $6.75.

GRAIN—Corn dull; white $1. Outs 63a6te. nower for good not to go nurewarded now going ou in our midst.

This lodge will pay an official visit to Ohio Falls Lodge, in Jeffersonville, next Friday night. These unions are ealeulated to promote the general diffusion of the principles of "Faith Hope and Charity." Many a father, mother, sister, brother, and scores of children, have cause to rejoice with exceeding great joy over the works of 64. this order in our city. Reason restored, children fed and elothed, kindness and affeetion rewarded, love and happiness reestablished in the home circle-these are among the works of the order over which saved from heaven, a man firmly fixed upon the rock of temperance, against which the waves of pollution break is vain, is a noble spectacle. All such may hereafter be like the Rechabites, of whom they obeyed the teachings of their father and drank no wine, that they "should stand before His throne forever as a people." Let all persons and families follow their example.

LOUISVILLE CITY COURT.

HON. E. S. CRAIG, JUDGE.

WEDNESDAY, August 18, 1869. The principle that governs nations is MADRID, Aug. 17.—The Epoca and other an inherent one existing in the bosom of ewspapers deny the existence of negotiations every individual member of the Common every individual member every individua wealth, and it is only when the individual unites the family is the power that unites the State, and when that is destroyed by unwise legislation, then comes the mighty ood. With these philosophical meditations your reporter entered the City Court this morning to hear the discussions o the lawyers.

But twist the law as they might, the court would bring the principles out of chaos, and show the reason and philoso-phy of it. The culprit, too, if one spark virtue remained, would be benefitted by

So, in the City Court, with its noise and turbulence, the greatest good is done to the greatest number by this lengthened discussion of every principle by both bar Motion by attorney that a fine be con fessed by John Berry for disorderly conduct. Case examined, and defendant Budolph Milias, disorderly conduct; dis-

harged Conrad Kirks, disorderly conduct; fine

Henry Medley, the same old hero on the same old drunk, appeared before his Honor this morning, after being discharged yes-terday morning, and his Honor held that he was guilty of contempt of court for his persistent drunk after the mercy shown Fined $3 and put in bonds of $100 for 30 days.

his mouth closed with his two hands to his ear and whispered so loud that one THE LATEST DISPATCHES. would think that it was a saw mill run ning out of gear. An attorney wished that Hogarth could have taken the picture. Fined $3 for the assault. David Brown, disorderly conduct; mo-tion made for continuance overrnled, case heard and fine of three dollars imposed.

James Welsh, drunk and disorderly fined three dollars. Emmett Lock, assault and battery or Chas. Nalley; warrant suspended and bond in one hundred dollars.

Sydney Alexander, suspected felon. This is a negro, and the attorney for the defense stated the point, that being once a slave, and the law emancipating him beng unconstitutional, he could not properly be charged with suspected felony; but the also be glad to receive any candidates court held otherwise, and put him under bonds in the sum of one thousand dollars for twelve months.

Emmett Lock, stealing preserves from Chas, Slaughter; bond in two hundred dollars to answer.

Ollie Wright, stealing ten dollars from Frank Ferich; bonds in two hundred dollars to answer.

Reuben Sutton, stealing money from John Lineoln; discharged. John Woods, house-breaking; boud of

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE EXPRESS, ) WEDNESDAY, August 18, 1869.

commodated at nine and twelve per cent. Gold opened at-

Exchange is in good demand, but the supply considerably exceeds the require- appreciation of his services in encourag-

Markets by Telegraph. NEW YORK MARKET. NEW YORK, August 18-12 M.

NEW YORK, August 18—12 M.
GOLD—133.
COTTON—Demand fair and prices firm; good middling, 5<sup>5</sup> c.
Dry Goons—Quiet but steady.
GROCERIES—Quiet but steady.
OLDS—Linseed oil quiet but steady at 97cc 1.
Petroleum—Dull and nominal; crude 17%c; reflect 32c. Whisky-Quiet but firm. GRAIN-Wheat is dull and nominal. Oats

GRAIN—Wheat is duff and nominal. Oak intil and tending downward.

Hous—Steady at 10x10<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>e; receipts 3,000.

CATLE—Steady at 10x10<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>e; receipts 100.

Receipts, Shipments,

Flour, 31,000 bisks, 37,000 bisk.

Vient, 10x1,003 bisks, 630,000 busk,

Forn, 61,000 bisks, 5,000 busk,

Dats, 67,000 bisk, noue CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, August 18-11:15 A. M. FLOUR-Dull and nominal.
GRAIN-Wheat dull; No. 2 spring $1-41 and No. 3 $129; No. 2 red $1 ft, selter for August. Corn quiet but firm; No. 2 $245224c, rejected No. with seller this month. Cats firm for No. 2 at 173c, seller this month. By 6 and barley order.

60,000 0.000 NEW ORLEANS MARKET.

GRAIN—Corn dun; white at. Oats baselined HAY—Firm at $20.
BRAN—Declined to 97%c.
Provisions—Mess pork dull; held at $35.50.
Bacon firm; shoulders 17c; clear rib 19%c; clear sides 20c. Lard very firm at 2020%c;

kegs 22a2's. GROCKRIES-Sugar quiet but firm; common Ilc; prime 14'c. Moiasses quiet but ilrm; reboiled @a70c. FOREIGN MARKETS. LIVERPOOL, August 18-11:15 A. M. COTTON—The market opened active, Sales of 15,000 bales, Uplands 13 d; Orleans 13 d. Provisions—Pork 102/s, Lard 77s, Bacon 64s.

FLOUR-Western 25s &d.
GRAIN-Wheat-Western red 10s &d. Cal
forma white 11s 3d. Corn 31s &d. Oats 3s &d. Inverpool, August 18-1:20 P. M. COTTON—Is active. Sales 20,000 bales. Uplands 13%, a13%, d; Orleans 13%, a13%, d; Shipments of cotton from Bombay stuce last report, to August 12, are 9,00 bales.

PROVISIONS—Unchanged.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE. PORT OF LOUISVILLE, .WEDNESDAY, August 18, 1869. ARRIVALS-AUGUST 18.

Nai. Williams, Madsn Tarascou, Henderson Gen. Buell, Cln. DEPARTURES-AUGUST 18. Nat. Williams, Madsn Tarascon, Henderson Falls Pilot, Belmont. Gen. Ruell, Cin. The river fell one inch during the last twenty-four hours, leaving three feet eight inches in the canal, with one foot eight mind, leaped from the attic window of his twenty-four hours, leaving three feet eight inches in the chute. The weather is warm and still. Business dull. -The Falls Pilot, with three barges of railroad cars, left to-day for Belmont, fifteen miles below Cairo.

—The mailboats United States and General Buell were detained this morning by fog and low water.

The Nat. Williams, from Madison, arrived this morning and departed at noon.

The fleet and elegant Taraseon arrived from Henderson this morning with a fair trip. She returns this evening from the Portland wharf, at 5 o'clock. -The Charmer will resume operations Thursday.

-The Mary Houston arrives from New Orleans Friday.

—Capt. Milt. Akin, of the steamer Le-Claire, has been quite unwell for several days, which may delay the departure of this boat for Tennessee river. -The Gen. Buell got in from Cincinuati this morning at 10 o'clock, having been detained by the heavy fog.

The Leonora is the Madison boat for to-morrow. Geo. Lilley has recovered, and his smiling face will be found in the -The Flavilla left for New Orleans today with a good trip. She is a neat, trim boat, and works most satisfactory to her -The reliable packet Charmer, from Cincinnati to Evansville, passes down to morrow, receiving considerable freight at this point. Montcalm & Co. agents. -The Anna is announced for Saturday, n route for St. Louis. The Lorena and barges are hard aground at Portlandbar. Also the Charleston and barges, at the same place.

Oliver Morton, a negro hard of hearing, answered to the peace warrant of Joe laws, of the like hue. Joe was struck in the face by Oliver, and so stated, but the pects to be absent several years on his ex- few insignificant injuries about the head

NEW YORK.

New Freight Tariff Agreed Upon.

Neill, the Counterfeiter, Admitted to Bail.

New York, August 18. The railroad was over Western freights terminates next Saturday, new rates hav-ing been agreed upon by the competing

Secretary of War Rawlins arrived to-lay on route to Danbery, Conn., in good The confession of John Bower, anthor of the terrible Carr's Rock disaster on the Erie road, is published.

Chey-chew and Sing-man left yesterday for San Francisco, stopping two days in Ubicago. General Siegel declined to be marshal of the Humboldt celebration parade, and Gen. Burger was selected in his place.

Niell, the alleged coin counterfeiter, has been admitted to bail in $5,000, taweit the action of the grand jnry.

The injunction papers against the cat tle-yard proprietors at Cummunipaw ka been served. They will endeavor to ob-tain a modification allowing the killing of cattle now on hand. Assistant Treausurer Only received proposals to day to sell 1,136,200 of 5-2) all of which are accepted. The balance of the two millions required are adver-tised for to-morrow. The purchasing

THE PACIFIC.

Entertainment to C. K. Garrison.

Trouble Threatened on the Central Pacific R. R.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 17. Last night the leading citizens enter-tained C. K. Garrison, formerly Mayor of San Francisco, who is now on a visit from New York. The banquet was given in

Francisco. Mr. Garrison left for New York to-day. The directors of the Central Pacific ailroad company have received information of a conspiracy among some disaf-fected men formerly employed on the road, to burn all the bridges, stock and fuel east of the Sierra Nevada mountains n one night. The company have taker. measures to frustrate their designs

ST. LOUIS.

COMMITTAL OF MRS. WILSON, THE DIAMOND THIEF.

Wagon-Train Escort Butchered by the Indians.

Sr. Louis, August !-Joseph A. Eddy, formerly of the firm of Eddy. Jameson & Co., of this city, d.ed here yesterday.

Mrs. George Wilson, alias Louisa Davis. was committed to jail yesterday in default of $2,000 bail, for robbing Prouhet's jew-

wagon train belonging to Juan Gonzales was attacked by Indians on the Gila river on the 4th instant and thirteen men kill d

lry store of $0.000 worth of diamonds

A private letter from Arizona says a

EUROPE. Spain Taking Measures to Prevent the Assembling of Carlists.

Parts, Ang. 1.

The yacht race Monday for the Emperor's cup, valued at 3,000 francs, from Cherbourg to Portsmouth and return, started Monday afternoon. Paris, Ang. 1-

LONDON, August 1-.

The Harvard and Oxford crews were out again last evening, the former in their new boat, built by Clasper & Labber, in the new salter boat. The darkness preented any estimate of the work. Madrid, August 1-

The Government is taking extraordinary precautions to prevent the assembling of the Carlists at Lamancha.

River and Weather. CINCINNATI, August 17. The river has fallen three inches; there s six feet seven inches water in the chan-The weather is clear in part. Ther-

SAD DEATH OF AN IRISH PATRIOT. Col. Wm. J. Nagle, in a Fit of Insanity,

From the N. Y. Sun, Monday.

Early yesterday morning Col. William residence, No. 80 Madison street, and was instantly killed. It is believed by his friends that the sufferings which he had been compelled to endure during the past few years had affected his brain, which eulminated in temporary insanity; and latterly he had been kept under close guardianship from fear that he might do some rash act. Very recently the disorder took the feature that he was still being kept in prison by the British, and it is more than likely that he fancied he was escaping from a British dungeon when he committed the act which cost him his lile. Corn and Tubacco Crop of Tennessee,

By a private letter from a gentleman connected with the grocery house of Messrs. Wheeler & Riggs, of our city, and who is now traveling in Tennessee in the interest of the house, we learn that the corn erop in the section of country about Springfield, Tenn., and in a great portion of the country over which he has traveled, is in a had condition indeed, and that it there is not rain soon, there will not be more than half a yield this year. He also states that the tobacco crop, in a good portion of the country over which he has passed, looks tolerably well. The yield of this article, he thinks, will be fair.— Evansville Journal.

Mrs. Kate Baxter, a danghter of Commodore Vanderbilt, became a heroine as Rye Beach a day or two ag. She was riding in a Victoria carriage, accompanied by her child and Mrs. Pirsson and child, en the horse affrighted, ran away. With coolness and generosity she determined first to save the child of her friend. So seizing it, she awaited a favorable oppor-The yacht Meteor, owned and comit fell in perfect safety. Shen then pressed attorney for the defense, desirous of in- eursion, as he intends to spend some time. The carriage was dashed against a stone forming his client of Joe's testimony, put at each place of interest en route.